

Work To Start On Antioch Mall Project

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

According to Antioch Re-Development Commission Chairman Mike Warren, work will begin on the new mall project within 10 days. "You can't start something like this with the weather we have had," Warren said.

The commission expects the project to be completed by July 31.

"We are very concerned that we complete this first stage in the proper fashion," Warren said. He pointed out that this is just the first link in a series of projects the redevelopment commission will be carrying out to boost the economic base of Antioch.

out to boost the economic base of Antioch.

Commission members expect the project to accomplish three goals:

- 1) To provide off-street parking for shoppers.
- 2) To provide all-day parking for local commuters
- 3) To provide a large, open area for community projects such as the R.V., Boat, and Auto Show.

The commission is also developing a pedestrian walkway off the mall. They intend to put in a gazebo that will have a directory identifying local retail shops.

In their continuing efforts to draw new retail stores to the Antioch business community, the commission will be developing and sending out information and brochures on the downtown area.

"Of course, we are very supportive of the Chamber of Commerce and work in close cooperation with them," Warren said.

Another project that may be in the wings is formation of an economic development corporation. Such a corporation could make the Village of Antioch eligible for certified city status. That certification would open up the possibility of designating some areas as enterprise zones, which would offer new businesses a temporary federal tax break under certain conditions.

Give Me A Little Kiss

Bill Brook, one of the founders of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club, gets a kiss from Ann Waters as he presents her with the 1986 Distinguished Leadership Award. Ann's husband, Richard, looks on. Waters was honored for her work on behalf of the club in all areas. She cooked, put up shingles, fixed plumbing and did everything else that was needed to get the club off the ground and keep it going.

Road Dept. Gets Fund

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

At the Antioch Town Meeting, Twp. Road Commissioner Mark Ring requested creation of a building and equipment fund that would have a maximum tax rate of three and a half cents per $100 of assessed valuation. The proposal was approved by a vote of 19-2.

Explaining why he requested this, Ring said that in previous years, money for equipment came out of the blacktop fund. "We can blacktop three and a half miles worth of roads each year if we don't have to buy equipment," Ring said.

Emphasizing that money would not be levied for the fund every year, Ring said that he felt it was very important to keep up with blacktopping needs. If the township keeps up the condition of the roads, it is both more convenient for the citizens and less expensive than letting a road get into bad shape and having to do a major job of rehabilitation.

"We will levy money for the fund this year," Ring said, "because we have an old one-ton truck that we want to trade for a two and a half-ton model. That will give us five good trucks. It will help make snow removal go quicker."

For years in which money is levied, it will add no more than $7 to the tax bill of the average homeowner (figured on an average home value of $60,000).

Through this measure, the township will be able to get new equipment when needed without cutting into the resurfacing program.

Republicans Stew As Spat Goes On

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

The feud between Antioch Twp. Republican Club Chairman Chuck Kempf and Twp. Super Jim Fields show no sign of cooling off.

In last week's issue of the News-Reporter, Fields was quoted as having said that he was not happy with Kempf, in part, because, "...when we went to the county endorsement meeting, Chuck got up and spoke in endorsement of (Venita) McConnell (for county clerk). That was not what the township organization voted to do and it was a on behalf of anyone," Kempf said. "We held three secret ballots and I voted in the last two but I did not speak out. I don't know how Jim would know what happened: he wasn't even there. I just hope Jim has better information than this when he makes decisions on the county board, if he makes decisions."

When contacted, Fields said that he had been partially misquoted. He said that he had not said, "When we went to the county endorsement meeting..."

"What I actually said," Fields responded, "was 'when he went to the endorsement meeting...' I was not at the endorsement meeting. I did not mean to say that Kempf spoke on behalf of McConnell. What I meant to say was that he voted for her."

Asked how he knew that Kempf voted for McConnell when it was a secret ballot, Fields said that he had been told that by Kempf. Kempf did not deny this.

Both Fields and Kempf are pledged to support the Republican slate in the November election. The spat over who supported whom for county clerk appears, like an iceberg, to be the public tip of a much larger struggle for control of the Antioch Republican party.

Kempf called the News-Reporter to respond to that statement. "I did not speak

Oil Spill To Be Excavated

A month and a half old oil spill behind the old Jewel parking lot has become quite a nuisance. According to Lake County Health Dept. representative, Ken Bardo, the affected area is going to have to be excavated to rid the area of a nasty odor.

A plot of land approximately 50 by 100 feet was found to contain one percent diesel fuel oil upon analysis by the health dept.

Bardo said that the village and the health department were working together to determine how the excavation will be handled. They will have to obtain a special waste permit from the Illinois EPA to properly dispose of the excavated soil.

Village officials said they expect to have a plan ready by early next week.

Man Held On Sex Charge

Forty-four year old Robert Walden of Antioch was arrested in Waukegan April 8. He was charged with aggravated kidnapping, attempted aggravated kidnapping, indecent solicitation of a child, and drunken driving.

Waukegan Police Lt. Phillip Joiner said that Walden allegedly tried to entice a 13-year-old boy into his car at 8th and Genesee streets to perform a sexual act for $20.

The youth walked away and called police. A radio dispatch was sent out and the car was located at Utica St. and Ravine Ave. Walden was arrested by patrolman Mark Johnson.

Walden was identified by the youth. Joiner said Walden works for an exterminator company and had a customer account in the area.

Last Chance For Mousetrap

Agatha Christie's murder mystery, "The Mousetrap," which set a record as the longest running play in London, is going into its last weekend at the historic PM & L Theatre in Antioch. Performances will be held on April 18 and 19.

Antioch Team Seeks Swimmers

The Antioch Swim Team which is sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, is starting its 1986 season and is looking for swimmers ages six through 17.

The season runs from the beginning of June through the end of July. Competition will be with teams from McHenry, Plum Grove, Waukegan and Cary. There is daily practice, Monday through Friday and two swim meets a week. Each swimmer will participate in one of the two meets schedule for each week.

This is an excellent opportunity for children to learn the different swim strokes and to keep in shape for the summer. It also promises to be fun and rewarding.

Registration will be held on Saturday, May 24, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Williams Park swimming pool in Antioch.

For further information contact Linda Pedersen at (312)395-1384 or Donna Ryan at (312)395-1052.

Antioch Man Captain Of SIU Flight Team

Southern Illinois University's student flying club takes to the air Thursday (April 16) on a mission to return the National Intercollegiate Flying Association (NIFA) Championship to the SIU campus at Carbondale.

Dean W. Haviland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Haviland of Antioch, is the co-captain of the team.

The Flying Salukis, national winners in six of the past eight years, will go for the title again in the three-day NIFA finals at Waco. Host school is Texas State Technical Institute.

Coach Terry K. Wendling says the SIU club is a leading contender.

While in Texas, the Flying Salukis will mount a lobbying effort to host the 1987 national meet at their own field, Southern Illinois Airport. Armed with literature and photographs, the team will try to convince students from across the country to vote for SIU. NIFA held the championship at SIU in 1973.

Collegiate pilots compete in five flying and five ground events that test navigational and piloting skills. A new event this year includes entering and interpreting weather information on a flight computer.

Board Nixes Millburn Bid For Detachment

by STEVE PETERSON

Citing an insufficient number of signatures, the Lake County, the Lake County Regional Board of School Trustees denied a petition of detachment from Warren Twp. High School April 14.

A group of petitioners from Millburn School Dist. 24 was seeking detachment from Warren and annexation to Antioch High School.

Thomas Robinson, an attorney for the Waukegan law firm of Snyder, Clarke, Dalziel & Johnson, said that the petition does not meet state law requiring two-thirds of registered voters sign the petition.

"The board acted decisively and appropriately," Robinson said after the 6-1 vote at the Lake County Courts Building in Waukegan.

The courtroom was nearly filled with 65 pro-Warren persons, who applauded when the vote was cast.

Robinson said the petitioners needed 156 registered voters and the March 21 petition had 141.

One issue at the meeting arose over whether or not the county's voter registration list from County Clerk Linda Hess was up to date.

"The problem is defining just who is registered. There is not an up-to-date list available. People who died or moved away are still listed as registered voters," Bernard Wysocki, an attorney for the petitioners, said.

Robinson said his office had sent notice to the petition's "Committee Of Ten" April 11 explaining why the petition is invalid.

Robinson said that there are 234 registered voters on Hess' list as of date of filing the petition.

Wysocki countered his side should have had more time to examine the challenge, but the board denied the request.

Warren board of education president John Nosch, who attended the meeting, expressed satisfaction with the vote.

"I think Warren High School is a darn good high school. When you start allowing areas on the outside of your boundaries to leave, where does it all end?" Nosch said.

Wysocki said petitioners will examine the updated voter registration list and then decide whether or not to resubmit one this summer.

The Millburn detachment is the first of two petitioners Warren is facing.

A group of Arbor Vista residents is expected to appear before the regional board July 7, seeking detachment from Warren and annexation to Libertyville.

GOP Ballots, No-Shows Dominate Antioch Vote

by JOHN STEINKE (Political Columnist)

The Village of Antioch is a staunch Republican community. Only 345 out of the village's 2,558 voters cast ballots in the March 18 primary. Among the 345 voters, there were 317 Republican ballots and only 28 Democratic votes. The GOP recorded 91.9 percent of the votes to only 8.1 percent for the Democrats. Election officials could have filed missing voter reports on most village residents. Only 13.5 percent of the community's electorate participated in the spring election.

In the major Republican races, Antioch voters supported Donna-Mae Litwiler for county clerk, along with Pat Anderson and Charlotte "Char" Kiesgen for the county board. Dist. 4 County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler won the county clerk's nomination over Wauconda Village Clerk Venita L. McConnel. Veteran incumbent Norm Geary, who won renomination for the county board, failed to carry the Antioch vote. Geary ran a distant third behind the party's endorsed candidates: Charlotte Kiesgen and Pat Anderson. Kiesgen was the other Republican winner in the six-way contest for the county board.

Here are the primary totals for the two major Republican races recorded in the Village of Antioch in the March 18 election: GOP primary vote for Lake County Clerk—Donna-Mae Litwiler, 180 (64.5 percent) and Venita L. McConnel, 99 (35.5 percent); and GOP primary vote for Lake County Board—Pat Anderson, 135 (24.3 percent); Charlotte Kiesgen, 133 (24.0 percent); Norm Geary, 95 (17.1 percent); Ray Edwards, 72 (13.0 percent); Joe Tobolik, 65 (11.7 percent) and Bill Mestan, 55 (9.9 percent).

Yastrow To Speak

Sybil Yastrow, Republican candidate for Lake County Regional Superintendent of Schools, will speak at the second annual Antioch Library Friends meeting on Monday, April 28. The meeting is scheduled to be held in the lower level of the First National Bank of Antioch at 7:15 p.m.

Among the topics that Yastrow will talk about are consolidation, annexation, reorganization, and new age requirements for kindergarten. After her presentation, Yastrow will invite questions from the audience.

After the meeting, two best-selling books will be raffled off. Refreshments will be served.

Athlete Of The Week

In four games that week, Humphreys batted .533 with two doubles, two home runs, and 12 runs batted in.

WXLC Radio To Give Away Renault Alliance

Waukegan FM radio station WXLC has announced that its listeners will have a chance to win a brand new, 1986 red Renault Alliance furnished by Waukegan AMC-Renault in Waukegan.

Waukegan AMC-Renault is in the process of conducting its grand opening festivities and as a part of the celebration has furnished the grand prize for WXLC's "Wheels of Fortune" contest.

To enter, anyone can stop by Waukegan AMC-Renault's new showroom located at 550 N. Greenbay Rd. (just south of Grand) in Waukegan, fill out the registration form, then listen for their name to be read on the air.

The registration form includes a spot for the entrant's social security number; this is the contest control number so it is very important that this information be completed accurately; WXLC will validate qualifying winners with this number.

Once entered, listeners must listen for their name to be read on WXLC...then when it is, they have 10 minutes to call in, correctly identify their social security number as it is given on the registration form, and have the jock spin one of the "Wheels of Fortune."

The "wheel" has the qualifying prizes in rotating order; the contestant will then win either Chicago White Sox tickets or a certificate for a lube, oil change and filter furnished by Waukegan AMC-Renault.

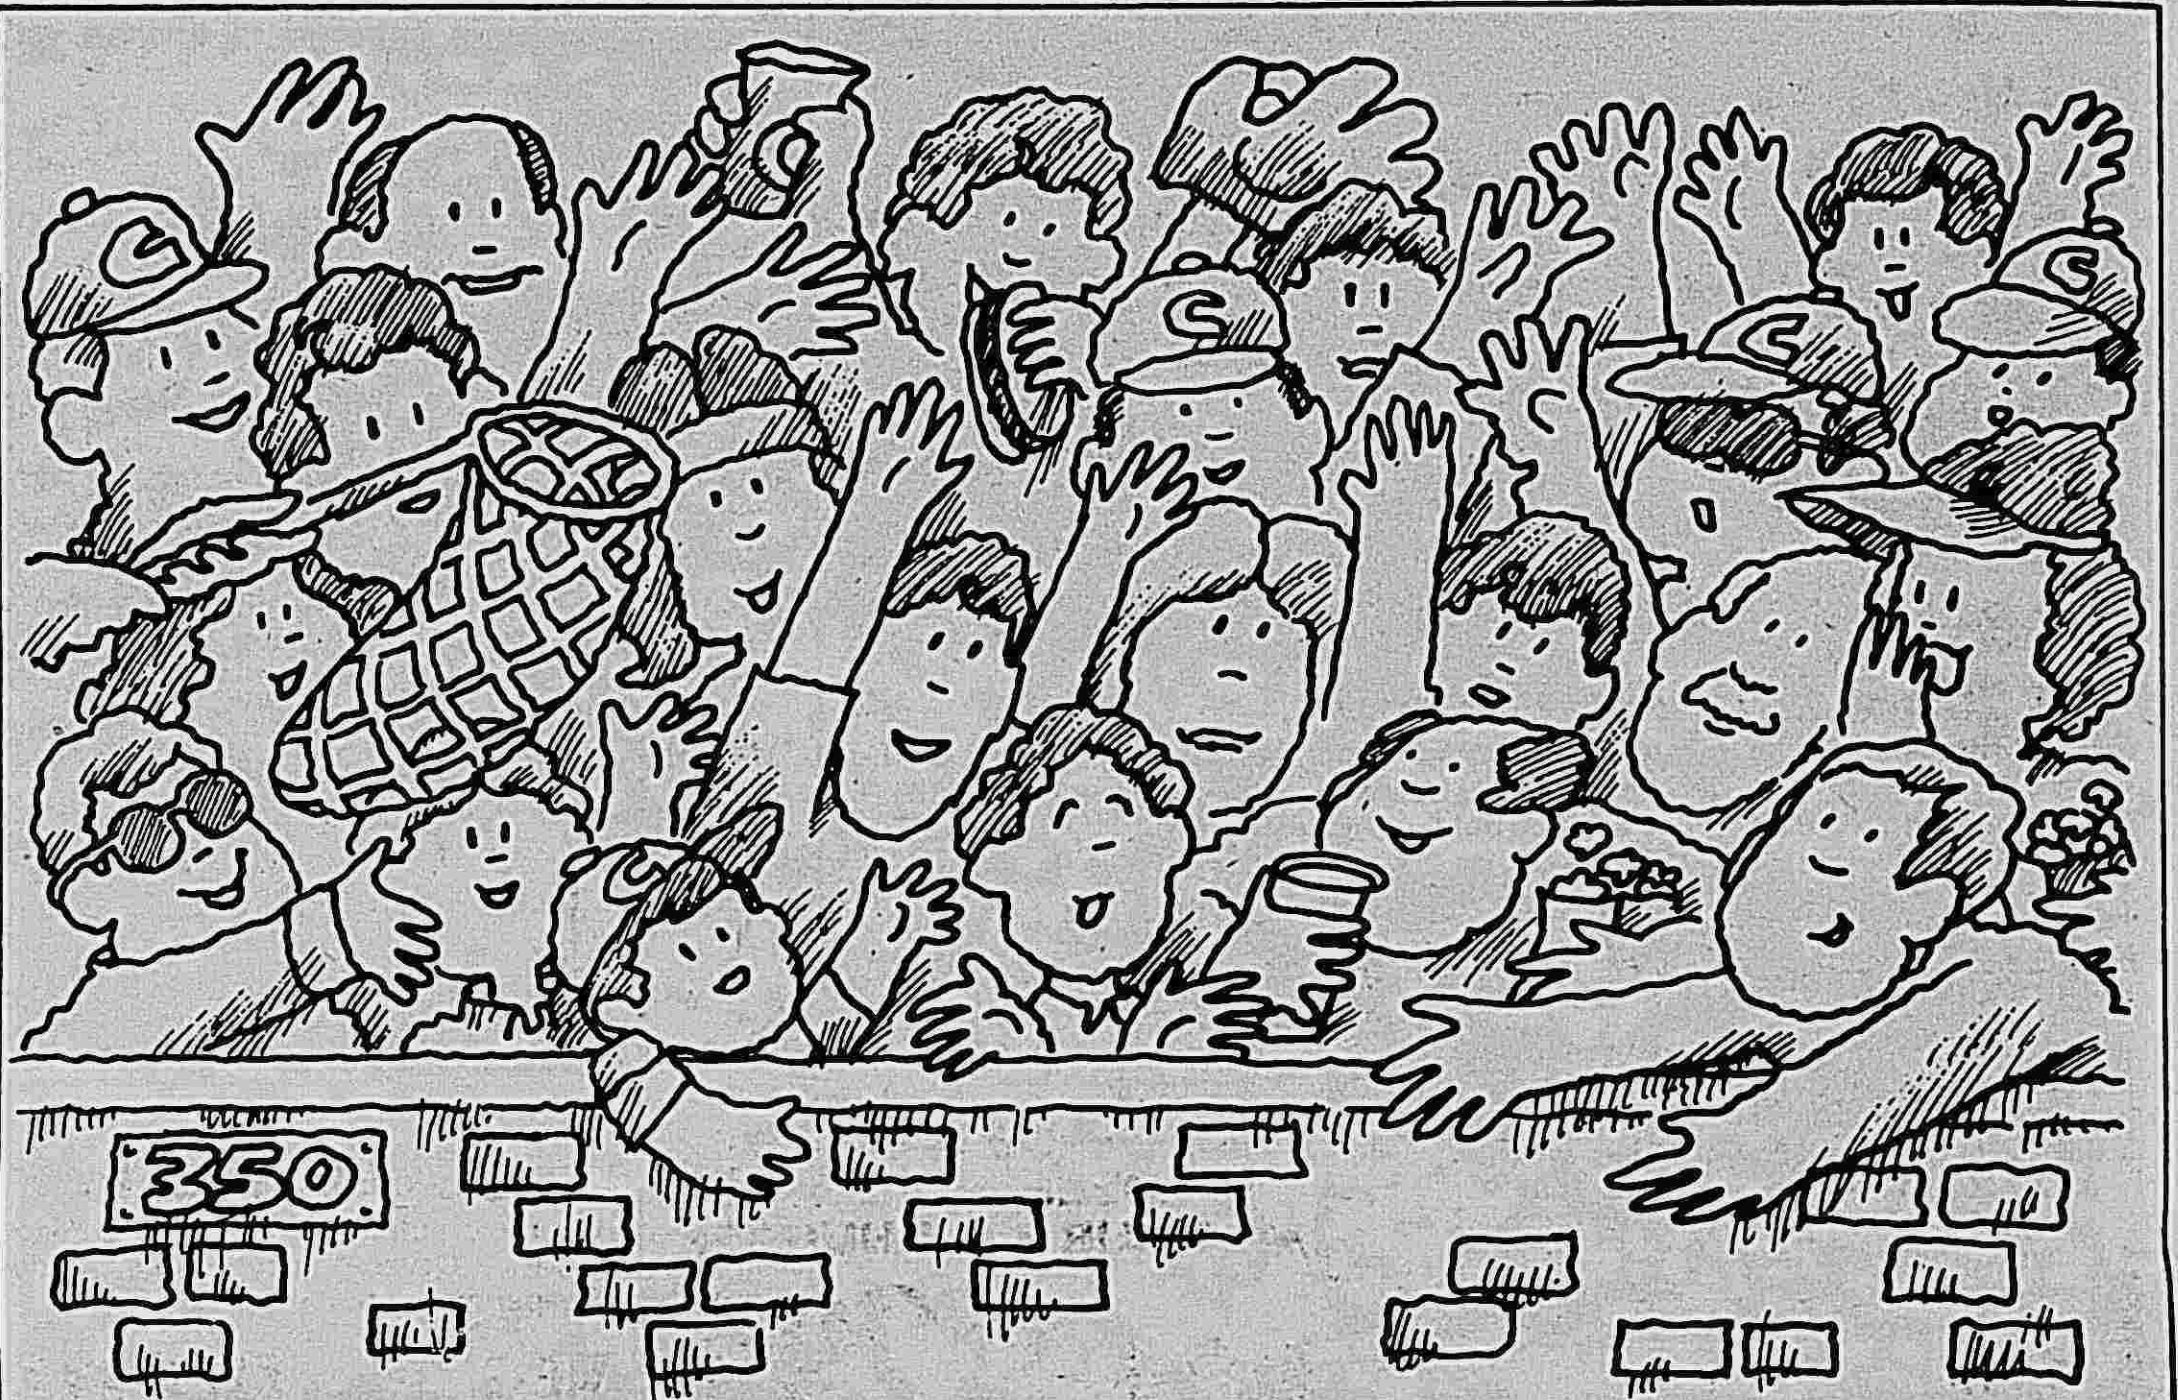

Once a person wins in this portion of the contest, they are eligible for the grand prize drawing for the 1986 Renault Alliance, which will be held Saturday, May 3, at Waukegan AMC-Renault during the WXLC Travelin' Radio Show. Winner of the car must be present at the time of the drawing in order to claim the prize.

Promotions Director Rich Padgen indicated that the entire staff of WXLC is excited about the promotion.

"This is the culmination of a lot of work and effort by our entire organization," Padgen stated. "We've wanted a major prize, such as a new car, to use in our contests for a long time. This is a dream come true."

Complete details and rules for the contest are available at WXLC, 3250 Belvidere Rd., Waukegan.

Opportunities to win have already started and go all the way through Friday, May 2

Pet Of The Week

Christina Kujak, 10, of Salem poses with her collie, Lady. Both are involved in the Kenosha County 4-H Dog Project, which is lots of fun and a great learning experience. Two-year-old Lady likes to play catch with her ball or toy frog. She loves to run and enjoys the wind blowing through her coat. When Lady was just a puppy, she saw her reflection in the range door and went "bananas." Thinking there was another puppy, she ran to the other side of the wall, seeking a friend. Alas, the disappointment! We'd love to introduce your pet to Lakeland readers. Just contact the editor of this newspaper for details. —Photo by Cindy Kujak.

April 10 Deadline Set For Scholarships

The application due date for the 1986 Student Summer Scholarship Program offered by the Lake County Unit of the American Cancer Society, in cooperation with seven Lake County hospitals, is Friday, April 30.

The Reverend Joseph M. Wilcox, chairman of the Lake County Unit Public Education Committee, stated the program will provide 16 scholarships for high school students interested in clinical laboratory work and said,

"Our program, which provides students with an appreciation of life sciences, is intended to help them determine whether they want a vocation in the medical or paramedical field."

The scholarships are open to sophomore and junior students who are non-smokers. Applications for scholarships are available in all Lake County high schools or the American Cancer Society office.

For additional information, call (312) 336-9293, the Lake County Units Office of the American Cancer Society, 2835 Belvidere Rd., Waukegan.

Phone Numbers To Be Changed

Over the weekend of April 12 and 13, Illinois Bell will be converting the Centrex telephone system for many Lake County agencies from the North Chicago office to the Waukegan central office.

This conversion will result in all of the telephones of Lake County government agencies with a 689-exchange to have a 360-exchange. The 360-prefix already appears in all local telephone directories.

The main switchboard number for Lake County will change from 689-6600 to 360-6600 as the result of this conversion. It is important to note that this conversion will have no effect on county government telephone numbers with other than 689-prefixes.

County government emergency telephone numbers will not be affected by this change.

Forest Preserve Gets Grant

The Lake County Forest Preserve District is pleased to acknowledge a $2,400 grant from Baxter Travenol Laboratories and a $2,500 grant from Abbott Laboratories. The donation will be used for the Youth Conservation Corps. (YCC) program for 1986.

If you are interested in contributing to this program or would like more information, contact Larry Bakanec at (312) 526-7878.

The YCC program is an eight-week employment opportunity for Lake County high school students ages 16 to 18. The program began in 1974 with federal funding;

however, when federal grants terminated in 1981, a YCC Advisory Committee was formed to raise funding from local businesses, corporations and private individuals. The $30,000 goal this year will provide 30 young men and women with opportunities to gain meaningful work experience in a natural environment of the various Lake County forest preserves.

Lake County Forest Preserve District President, Donald Strenger commented, "The YCC program has benefited greatly from the five-year continued support from Baxter Travenol Laboratories. Their financial assistance as well as the time members of their staff donate to serve on the Advisory Committee have insured the continuance of this worthwhile program."

Happy Birthday!

College of Lake County (CLC) President, John O. Hunter (center), accepts birthday greetings written in the native languages of students in the English as a Second Language program at the Lakeshore Campus of CLC, Waukegan.

Cops Nab Man In Battery Case

A Lake Villa man was arrested on a charge of battery April 5.

Kevin Donahue, 24, was released on a notice to appear in court in Waukegan April 25.

Karen Tagler, 40, of Grayslake, was arrested April 9 for driving with a suspended license and speeding. She had a court date of May 27 in Branch Court, North Chicago.

Honor President

College of Lake County Lakeshore Campus adult education students representing 31 countries have continued the tradition of hosting a birthday celebration for CLC President John O. Hunter, of Waukegan.

The students presented Hunter with a personalized birthday card with greetings in their native languages.

The celebrations began seven years ago at the rebirth of Waukegan's St. Patrick's Day Parade, which happens to be Hunter's birthday. The staff at the Lakeshore Campus held up birthday greetings as Hunter passed with the parade, according to Lakeshore Director Eleanor Murkey.

It has evolved into an excellent opportunity for students in the English as a Second Language (ESL) Program to relate to the college through the president, Murkey explained. Presently over 151 students in 12 classes are enrolled in the ESL Program.

Commonwealth Stresses Kite-Flying Safety

With the arrival of spring and its windy days, Commonwealth Edison reminds parents to observe safe kite-flying techniques for the protection of youngsters.

Start with a kite made from "old fashioned" basics—wood, paper, string and cloth. Metal or wire should not be used because they can conduct electricity, causing injury if an accidental contact is made with an overhead wire.

Look for an open space to fly your kite. Avoid areas near power lines, TV and radio antennas, trees and busy streets or highways.

Fly the kite only in good weather, never in rain. Children may have read of Ben Franklin's exploits, but in real life this practice can be dangerous. A wet kite string can conduct electricity or lightning.

If the kite gets snagged in a tree or tangled in a power line, leave it there. Climbing trees or utility poles or entering "off limits" areas to retrieve a kite is not worth the risk of injury.

If kids keep these safety tips in mind, all they will need is a good breeze to make sure their kite is a high flyer.

Many of the safety tips for kites apply to model airplane flying as well. The basic rule is never fly a model plane near power lines of any type. It's not only the high voltage transmission lines that can cause trouble to model plane pilots. They can also suffer injury or death if they come in a backyard or local park where overhead lines exist. The inexperienced flyer might well lose control of his plane and get it lodged in the wires. Never try to dislodge a stuck air craft with a pole or rope or by climbing. A few other things to remember:

—Like swimming, it is safer and more fun to fly with on or more friends.

—Treat all power lines as if they were "live" at all times.

—Safe flying is no accident.

by JOHN STEINKE

Illinois Democratic officials have characterized the unexpected primary election victories of two Lyndon LaRouche-backed nominees on the statewide ticket as "a tragic mistake." Mark Fairchild, now the party's candidate for lieutenant-governor, and Janice Hart, selected for secretary of state, are both disciples of LaRouche.

Fairchild defeated State Sen. George Sangmeister, who was gubernatorial nominee Adlai Stevenson's choice for lieutenant governor. While the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor are nominated separately in the March primary, they run together in the general election. A Nov. 4 victory for Stevenson would thrust Fairchild into the office of lieutenant governor. Fairchild would be first in line to succeed Stevenson if he vacated the governorship.

Hart beat Aurelia Pucinski, the party's slated candidate for secretary of state and the daughter of a controversial Chicago alderman. The Fairchild-Hart nominations will jeopardize the entire Democratic ticket. Four years ago, former U.S. Sen. Adlai Stevenson lost to GOP Governor Jim Thompson by only 5,074 votes out of 3.6 million cast in the election. Stevenson has denounced the two LaRouche candidates as "Neo-Nazis."

Who is Lyndon LaRouche, Jr.? His present organization is the National Democratic Policy Committee. It is unaffiliated with the regular Democratic Party. LaRouche has been an extremist on both ends of the political spectrum. He was associated with the communist and Marxists until he developed his current ultraconservative organization.

The 63-year-old LaRouche was an Army medic during World War II. He discarded the national tv, LaRouche garnered just 150,000 votes in 1984. Four years earlier, he received just one percent of the total Democratic presidential primary vote.

The LaRouche movement advocates mandatory AIDS testing for everyone, makes anti-Semitic noises, denounces national leaders as traitors and explains national and international affairs in terms of sinister conspiracies. Next week, we will learn why columnist and television commentator Tom Braden has proclaimed LaRouche "the champion loose nut of American politics."

(First of a series)

Steinke On Politics

pacifism (opposition to war) of his Quaker parents. LaRouche switched from one left-wing faction to another after the war. He joined the Trotskyist Socialist Workers Party in 1948. In the mid-60's, LaRouche organized the New York Labor Committee, which was connected with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

In a split with the SDS, LaRouche renamed his group the National Caucus of Labor Committees. After living in West Germany for a time, LaRouche began a rapid shift to the right. The former Leftist began to teach that capitalism would be overthrown within a decade through pro-communist conspiracies. LaRouche has run in every presidential election since 1976. Despite raising $3 million, campaigning in a dozen Democratic presidential primaries and making nine half-hour presentations on

New Traffic Lights Sprouting Aplenty

New traffic signals are going to be sprouting like spring flowers.

No less than nine traffic signal projects—including seven new installations—are scheduled for the Lakeland Newspaper area this summer by the Illinois Highway Dept., the largest concentration of traffic signal work in this locality since stop and go went electronic.

The Lake County Highway Dept. will be participating in a number of the signal projects, according to County Hwy. Supt. Martin Buehler.

Each installation, including some turning lane modernization, represents an investment of approximately $300,000.

Buehler called the flurry of traffic signal installations a reflection of growing traffic and urbanization.

All the installations are based on a scientific traffic count.

Buehler pointed out that the state also has a number of new traffic signal installations elsewhere in the county.

Following are Lakeland traffic signal installations on the docket for the summer of 1986 (preliminary work already has started at some sites):

—Deep Lake Rd. and Rte. 173, east of Antioch.

—Deep Lake Rd. and Grand Ave., between Lake Villa and Lindenhurst.

—Rollins Rd. and Rte. 45, east of Lindenhurst.

—North Ave. and Rte 83, Antioch.
—Gilmer Rd. and Rte 83, rural Fremont Twp., west of Mundelein.

—O'Plaine Rd. and Grand Ave., Gurnee area, includes modernization of existing traffic signals and left turn installation.

—Hainesville Rd. and Rte. 120, between Grayslake and Round Lake Park in Village of Hainesville.

—Rte. 83 and Rte. 137, southwest of Grayslake.

—Rte. 60/83 and Rte. 176, Ivanhoe, modernization of existing lights and turn improvements.

As far as the Lake County Highway Dept. is concerned, road improvements scheduled for this year will be modest compared to former years, according to Buehler.

Resurfacing work is scheduled for three county road stretches: Center St., Grayslake, between Rte. 83 and Rte. 45; Washington St., Warren Twp., between Cemetery Rd. and Rte. 21; and Kenosha Rd., from Greenbay Rd. to the state line.

In the Libertyville area, Buehler reported that traffic signals and turn lanes will be installed at Butterfield and Winchester Rds.

Expect To Raise Drinking Age

by GLORIA DAVIS

Wisconsin's governor, Anthony Earl, who has opposed a 21-year-old drinking age raise in his state and backed a border hopping law, has changed his mind.

The fact that the federal government has added even more stringent penalties for states not complying with the 21-year-old mandate, the loss of federal road aids and the fear that his state will become a drinking island for teens led Earl to the turnabout.

After Wisconsin's democratic legislators (backed by liquor lobbyists) stalled the drinking age raise proposal during the regular session of the legislature, Earl called a special session for May 21 to vote on the age raise.

Liquor lobbyists also claim that sales tax to be lost will amount to 70 times that of the road aids.

Expressing worry over teens social lives, the lobbyists are expected to make a counter legislative proposal allowing teens to go into bars to drink soft drinks and socialize.

The approach of the next election when he and other legislators could suffer at the polls if the popular age raise does not go through is also considered to be a factor in Earl's change of mind.

If the age raise passes the Wisconsin legislature, it will then be up to the Iowa Legislature to follow suit, making the age-raise unanimous in those state plus Illinois, Michigan and Minnesota.

With the age raise popular with residents, municipal governments, law enforcement agencies, the surrounding states, and just about everyone except the Wisconsin Tavern League and other liquor lobbyists, the age raise is expected to pass.

The tavern league has warned that 100s of Wisconsin's 6,000 bars and millions of dollars in tax monies will be lost by the age raise.

Elderly Program Expands

A greater number of Lake County residents who are over 55 years of age are now eligible for service from the Private Industry Council of Lake County, according to Christine Stevens, director of the council's programs.

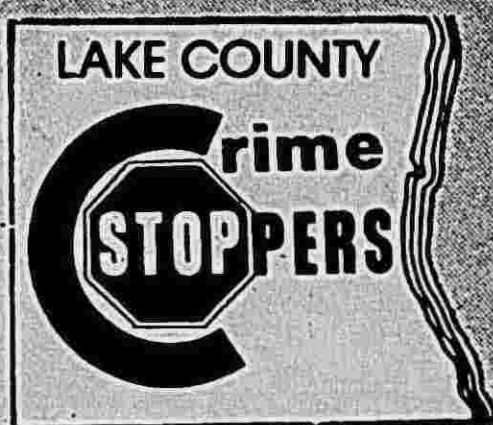

Word has been received from the Illinois Dept. of Commerce and Community Affairs that it is no longer necessary to include spouse's or other family members' income in determining a person's eligibility for Private Industry Council senior programs. Social Security income continues to be excluded from the eligibility determination.

The Private Industry Council places older individuals into full or part-time on-the-job training positions. The Council also provides classroom instruction for those who may need new skills, or a refreshing and up-grading of skills from former experience.

Stevens suggested interested persons contact Margaret Sullivan at the PIC office, (312) 249-2200.

Adena Staben, of Waukegan, was named teacher of the year by the Illinois Adult Continuing Educators Assn. at its annual meeting in Chicago.

Staben is an instructor in the English as a Second Language Program (ESL) at the Lakeshore and Grayslake campuses of the College of Lake County. She has been with the college since 1974. This is the first time a CLC instructor has won the award.

She was nominated by colleagues and students. Mary Charuhas, associate dean of adult and continuing education, and extension services said upon announcing the award, "Adena is a teacher who cares about students. ESL program." She has kept the letters of nomination and is especially fond of one student's comment, "Adena teaches from the heart."

Society Chorus Plans Concert In Wauconda

The Liberty-Fremont Concert Society Chorus, under its new director David Katz, is in final rehearsals for the spring concert. The performance will be Saturday, April 19, at 7:30 p.m. in Transfiguration Church, Rte. 176 in Wauconda.

The church is an earth-hugging modern building which is less than a year old. Its 750 seat sanctuary, with its attractive stained glass windows and mosaic mural behind the altar, will be an interesting setting for Mozart's "Ave Verum Corpus," the "Faure Requiem," Handel's "Zadok-Coronation Anthem," and the Haydn "Te Deum."

Soloists will be soprano Rosemarie Morgan and baritone Lee Strawn. Lenore Lams will be organist, and a small professional orchestra will perform. Included in the program will be a woodwind quartet of students from Wauconda High School. They are Jenny Breed on clarinet; Robianne LiChard, oboe; Trishia Griffiths, flute; and Tracey Gazda, bassoon.

Director Katz is associate conductor of the Elgin Symphony Orchestra. A graduate of the Hartt School of Music/University of Hartford, he has extensive conducting experience and is also a published composer. His first opera, "The Light of the Eye," won the Brooklyn College Chamber Opera Contest in 1984.

Tickets for the concert are $7.50, student/senior $5. Tickets must be purchased in advance as there will be no ticket sales at the door. By mail, order from LFCS, 304 Elm Court, Libertyville, IL 60048.

For information, phone (312) 680-1489. Tickets may also be purchased at Hale's Fabrics and Luebbers Pharmacy in Libertyville; Fair Haven Pharmacy in Mundelein; and Country Causals and Sunshine Flowers in Wauconda.

Subscribers are asked to take note of the fact that this is a change of date from the previous schedule. Also, Society President Barbara Schaper has suggested that there will be a sharing of rides to those needing transportation to the concert. If you would like to ride with others, phone the ticket office number to make arrangements.

This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Waukegan Area Arts Council.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Many of you will remember that a few years ago, Annie Mae had a little political bite to go with her kind words. Well, I am feeling spunky again and will have a thing or two to say about politics, the movers and shakers, the hesitant and the shirkers, and other interesting bits in addition to the nice things I always tell about.

You know, when you reach my age (which I'm not telling - you can guess by looking at the little drawing of me that accompanies this column) you can say what you want and people accept it. Half the people figure you're getting senile and the other half aren't listening anyway.

I figure it all works out. My eyesight isn't what it used to be and I don't dance the night away anymore, but I can say things now that my old mama would have clobbered me for.

Mama is gone now - has been for quite a while. I would call her a saint but it would be a lie. She was a tough woman with hands that were calloused from chopping wood and taking mischievous little girls to the woodshed. I don't fault her for it, though. Those were hard times and you had to be hard to raise a family then.

My husband Andrew is still with me. He's not as strong as he used to be, either, but he doesn't like for me to bring it up. I have to sometimes, though. There's times when Andrew would chop wood till his heart give out if I let him. I lost a father that way and I don't intend to lose a husband to such foolishness.

Anyway, this week I just wanted to introduce myself. I'll wait till next week to get spunky. For now, it's good news!

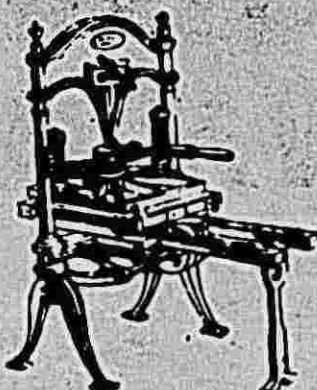

Did everyone have fun at the Good News Bears game? It seemed you all were having a good time. Those guys made us look a little small, didn't they? We were real proud of Doug Lang of the Antioch Rescue Squad. How did you like the cheerleaders with the fire department? Only the fire department could come up with ladies with those figures. They weren't shy, were they? I have never seen Tracey Nehlson or Tina Houle intimidated. You did a good job, girls.

Watch for Halley's Comet Tuesday night between 7 and 8 p.m. Ask your children what to look for - I think they know more about this than we do. Thank goodness we have them.

Don't forget that National Fitness Week is coming up April 25-27. Try out the new fitness court being placed in Williams Park. Watch for details on the grand opening in up and coming weeks. Get ready for summer.

Annie Mae wishes a happy first birthday to Amanda Rzyso and Taylor Loblillo who celebrated with family and friends over the weekend.

Vacancies To Be Filled Much Earlier This Year

Vacancies for all positions on the November ballot will be filled much earlier this year under a new state law, according to Lake County Clerk Linda Hess.

"In past years," said Hess, "political parties have had until August to find candidates for offices where there were vacancies. This created an unfair situation for candidates who had to wait so long to find out their opposition and for voters who had so little time to study the new candidate."

This has all changed to make the campaign much fairer for everyone.

Under H.B. 1109, vacancies must be filled within 60 days from the date of the primary election. Hess said that the heads of both political parties will have until May 18 to notify her office of their respective candidates to fill vacancies.

The vacancies which currently exist are, for the Democrats: state senators for the 30th and 32nd Districts, state representatives for the 59th, 60th, 62nd and 63 Districts, Regional Supt. of Schools, and county board members (two for each district) from the 1st, 4th and 5th Districts; and for the Republicans: North Chicago Aldermen for the 2nd, 5th, 6th and 7th Wards.

Sandee Joins Forest Preserve

Dr. Rolland Sandee, Waukegan, Illinois, has joined the Advisory Committee of the Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) of the Lake County Forest Preserve District. The Youth Conservation Corps program began in 1974 with federal grants. Since 1981, the program has continued through funding from individual and corporate contributions.

Donald Strenger, President of the Lake County Forest Preserve District stated, "We are fortunate to have Dr. Sandee as part of the Advisory Committee. He has previously served as Lake County Board Member, District 3, and during his term was chairman of the land acquisition committee. He has been an active supporter of the Lake County Forest Preserve District's open lands policy and the YCC program."

The YCC Advisory Committee is in need of additional members and/or financial contributions. The Committee meets eight or nine times a year and is a worthwhile expenditure of volunteer time.

Saving money by using less gas

THE UNHANDYMAN'S GUIDE TO CAULKING AND WEATHERSTRIPPING.

One of the best ways to save money on energy costs is to make improvements on your home that will help you use less energy.

One of the easiest and most worthwhile things you can do is minimize your heating and cooling loss by caulking and weatherstripping.

If you live in a typical home and install caulking and weatherstripping, you can trim your energy cost for heating by up to $40 per year. You'll recover your investment in two years or less, and after that it's money in the bank.

Caulking and weatherstripping your house requires a minimum of tools, time and know-how. Even not-so-handy homeowners can easily handle this job. You use caulk to plug air leaks outside and weatherstripping inside to seal the openings around doorways and windows.

"LET'S TALK CAULKING"

First, survey your house from the outside. Look for gaps in the exterior walls where you need caulk. Note any missing or sun dried caulk especially on the south side of your house.

Here's where to look:

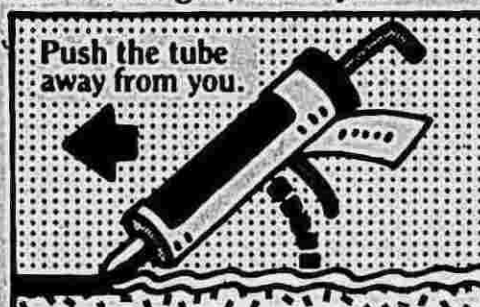

- Around all window and door frames
- Around exhaust fan

outlets (bath, kitchen or laundry) ■ Around window air conditioners ■ Around holes cut for hose faucet, wires and pipes ■ Around the chimney ■ Around lighting fixtures ■ Where masonry and siding meet.

Caulk is a flexible sealant designed to fill cracks and gaps in fixed joints of a house. One tube will fill about 25 feet of a narrow 1/4" crack or two small windows. In home centers and hardware stores you'll find a variety of caulks to choose from, but don't let that scare you. Ordinary latex caulk is easy to use and cleanup, and a good bet for the first time user. Silconized caulk is more expensive, but it lasts considerably longer. If you can afford to use a better grade of caulking you won't have to re-do the job every few years.

Check the label to see if the caulk can be painted, how long it takes to dry, the type thinner recommended for cleanup and what the temperature requirements are. Don't forget to purchase a caulking gun, unless you purchase caulk that comes in pressurized cans. Caulk guns usually cost only a few dollars.

■ Clean out the joint thoroughly and let dry. ■ Cut the tube tip off at a 45 degree angle making a 1/4" opening. ■ With the tube in the gun, break the seal with a nail. ■ Place the nozzle in the crack and squeeze the trigger while pushing the tube away from you to fill the gap. ■ Fill deep cracks with several beads of caulk. ■ Clean up immediately and put a nail in the tube nozzle to save for re-use.

WEATHERSTRIPPING—THE INDOOR SOLUTION

Weatherstripping is the best way to stop air leaks.

To detect hidden drafts inside, make your own distress flag by taping a piece of tissue to a pencil. On a breezy day use this detector to find air leaks by holding it near window sills and doorways. If the tissue moves, you've located a spot that needs weatherstripping. Here's where to look for drafts: ■ Around all windows and door frames ■ Space around pulleys in double-hung windows ■ At electrical wall outlets and switches in exterior walls ■ Around heating registers.

Weatherstripping comes in many forms. For instance there are threshold weatherstripping materials designed to fill the gap between the bottom of a door and floor. For doors and windows, there's spring metal or brass weatherstripping that's inexpensive and effective. Self-adhesive plastic weatherstripping is more expensive but easier to install. As a handy temporary sealer, you can use caulking rope or cord.

For electrical outlets and light switches, low cost foam rubber gaskets can be used to seal gaps. And, in your garage molded stripping is available to seal your garage door.

Installation is easy and you'll find instructions with each of these products. Metal weatherstripping is easily cut with a heavy scissors or tin snips. Plastic is cut with a knife or scissors. Before applying adhesive-backed weatherstripping, clean the surface behind the glue for maximum grip.

NOW'S THE TIME.

Now's a perfect time to get to work on projects like caulking and weatherstripping. So why not start now?

It'll be money in your pocket, when next winter rolls around.

Highway Carnage To End

Parents of teenagers and concerned citizens in our locality are rejoicing that Wisconsin appears to be ready to scuttle the 18-year-old drinking age law that has attracted so many young people here and elsewhere in northern Illinois to their deaths and disability. A special session has been called May 20 in Madison to vote on raising the legal drinking age to 21.

The special session has been called by Gov. Tony Earl, who, along with Atty. Gen. Bronson LaFollette and other legislative leaders, have made a dramatic about-face and have agreed that the time has come to have identical legal drinking age minimums. Iowa probably will adopt the 21 age minimum this year, also.

"People power" more than anything else probably influenced the Wisconsin leaders. Parents on both sides of the stateline, heartsick over the continued killing and maiming going on because of the drinking age differential, have been working together to change public sentiment in Wisconsin where the tavern and liquor lobbies wield unbelievable power. What finally turned the tide is when Wisconsin residents came to realize that the lower drinking age was as damaging to their young people as it was to Illinois teens lured over the border by booze and fun.

Wisconsin tavern and liquor leaders unleashed a blizzard of statistics to support their argument that raising the drinking age would bring economic chaos upon their state.

No doubt there will be some economic hardships involved, but it seems highly overstated that 6,000 taverns will be threatened and that the gain in federal highway funds will be only "one-seventieth" of the loss in liquor tax income.

You have to wonder in the face of this kind of arguing, what kind of value some Wisconsin residents put on life and limb?

Whether Gov. Earl was prompted more by the loss of 10 percent of the state's federal highway money or a change of heart, is immaterial in face of the prospect that "Bi-State Bingo" and the reputation of local highways like Rtes. 83, 45 and 41 as "Blood Alley" soon will be a thing of the past.

We owe a debt of gratitude to the Wisconsin parents and friends who stood by with those of us who fought so long for a uniform drinking age. The main thing is that the highway carnage is going to be stopped. Everyone can be thankful for that.

Our Staggering Debt

It was announced last week that the U.S. national debt has reached the two trillion mark. That's $2,000,000,000,000.

The temptation is strong to say, "So what?" What most of us know best when talk turns to millions, billions, and trillions is that any one of those numbers represents more money than we are likely to ever see.

But, oh, what a difference there is in those numbers.

It takes almost 12 days for a million seconds to pass. Most people are stunned to discover that it takes 31 years for a billion seconds to pass. We should all be staggered to know that it requires 310 centuries for a trillion seconds to pass.

Spotting Extremists

U.S. Sen. Paul Simon has voiced some comments about the Illinois primary election producing two Lyndon LaRouche extremists that are worthy of consideration.

The Illinois Democrat points out that the lessons to be learned include the desirability of maintaining "reasonably strong" and healthy Democratic and Republican organizations. When you vote, Simon cautions, if you don't know anything about candidates for a certain spot, do not feel obligated to put your mark by a name chosen at random.

Simon stressed that extremist candidates never should be taken for granted, recalling how the people of Germany misjudged a "young politician named Adolf Hitler." He said the Germans straightened out things—"35 million lives later."

Sen. Simon decried independents who avoid identification with one of the two major political parties and those who "assume there is some hidden wisdom in people going into the voting booth unguided to make political choices." He further denounced the myth that not having healthy Republican and Democratic parties is good.

The long-time politician has a well-deserved reputation for fairness and talking good sense. His words should be heeded.

Editor's Viewpoint

Unanswered Query Marks Closing Of Crane Visit

by BILL SCHROEDER

Congressman Phil Crane left a group of Lakeland Newspaper news editors breathless after he stopped by for a visit, ideas and opinions sprouting like jonquils after a warm April rain.

And when the former history professor is on a roll, he can cover a lot of ground.

What about our trouble in Libya? The U.S. should "take out" Col. Moammar Khadafy, Crane replied tersely. Without a whole lot of elaboration, the conservative spokesman indicated that the whole world would look upon such an event as a service to mankind.

Are we going to get meaningful tax reform? Not if the bureaucrats can help it, according to Crane. "I've got a seven page tax reform bill. The current bill is 1,400 pages. You'll get a hernia trying to carry it around," is the way the nationally known Republican described government's approach to "simplifying" taxation.

Congressman Crane expressed his irritation at the media's description of Lyndon LaRouche as an "ultra-right winger." LaRouche is not part of the right wing as is popularly known. "He started out as a communist. He's a radical."

Crane offered some eye-popping information about the LaRouche camp. "A good bit of their funding is coming through Libya. We know that."

Running again in the November general election without serious opposition, Crane can afford to drift from topical questions and hewing to issues of the day. And he did. Item: Congress should adopt a six-term requirement for all members. That would solve the "career politician problem." Item: the tuition tax credit plan might be revived "sometime in the future." As an educator and public official, Crane always has been in favor of tuition tax credits and he currently is co-sponsor of a bill providing for parental choice in the federal government's compensatory-education program (Chapter I). Item: President Lincoln wielded more raw power than any president in history. Item: Preserving Great Lakes Naval Training Center makes pure strategic sense because coastal training sites always are enemy targets. Item: There was much more reform and turmoil in our federal system of government in the years preceding the Civil War than during the Revolutionary War period.

In a freewheeling session on government and politics, Congressman Crane comes across like a professor conducting a senior seminar. To be sure, he is thoroughly comfortable in that environment. Even though the interview was short on hard news, it was long on the opportunity to view the length and breadth of our congressman's knowledge of government. It's enormous! Too bad there aren't more Cranes in Congress.

And then the question that 99 times out of 100 closes every Crane interview: Are you going to run for President again? At this, the master politician came out in the handsome Republican leader. He broke into a broad grin and jumped to his feet with a guffaw. "I've had a delightful time talking to you and now I see it's time to leave." Smiles and laughter all around—and a big question unanswered.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Now that pop is getting measured for a monkey suit and the invitations are in the mail, Bill and Lisa's big date in May isn't far away. Mom is thinking seriously about a new dress. ## Letter To The Editor:

No Give Away

Editor:

Let's give your elected officials some credit where credit is due. They were elected to serve the village. Protecting it goes along with that.

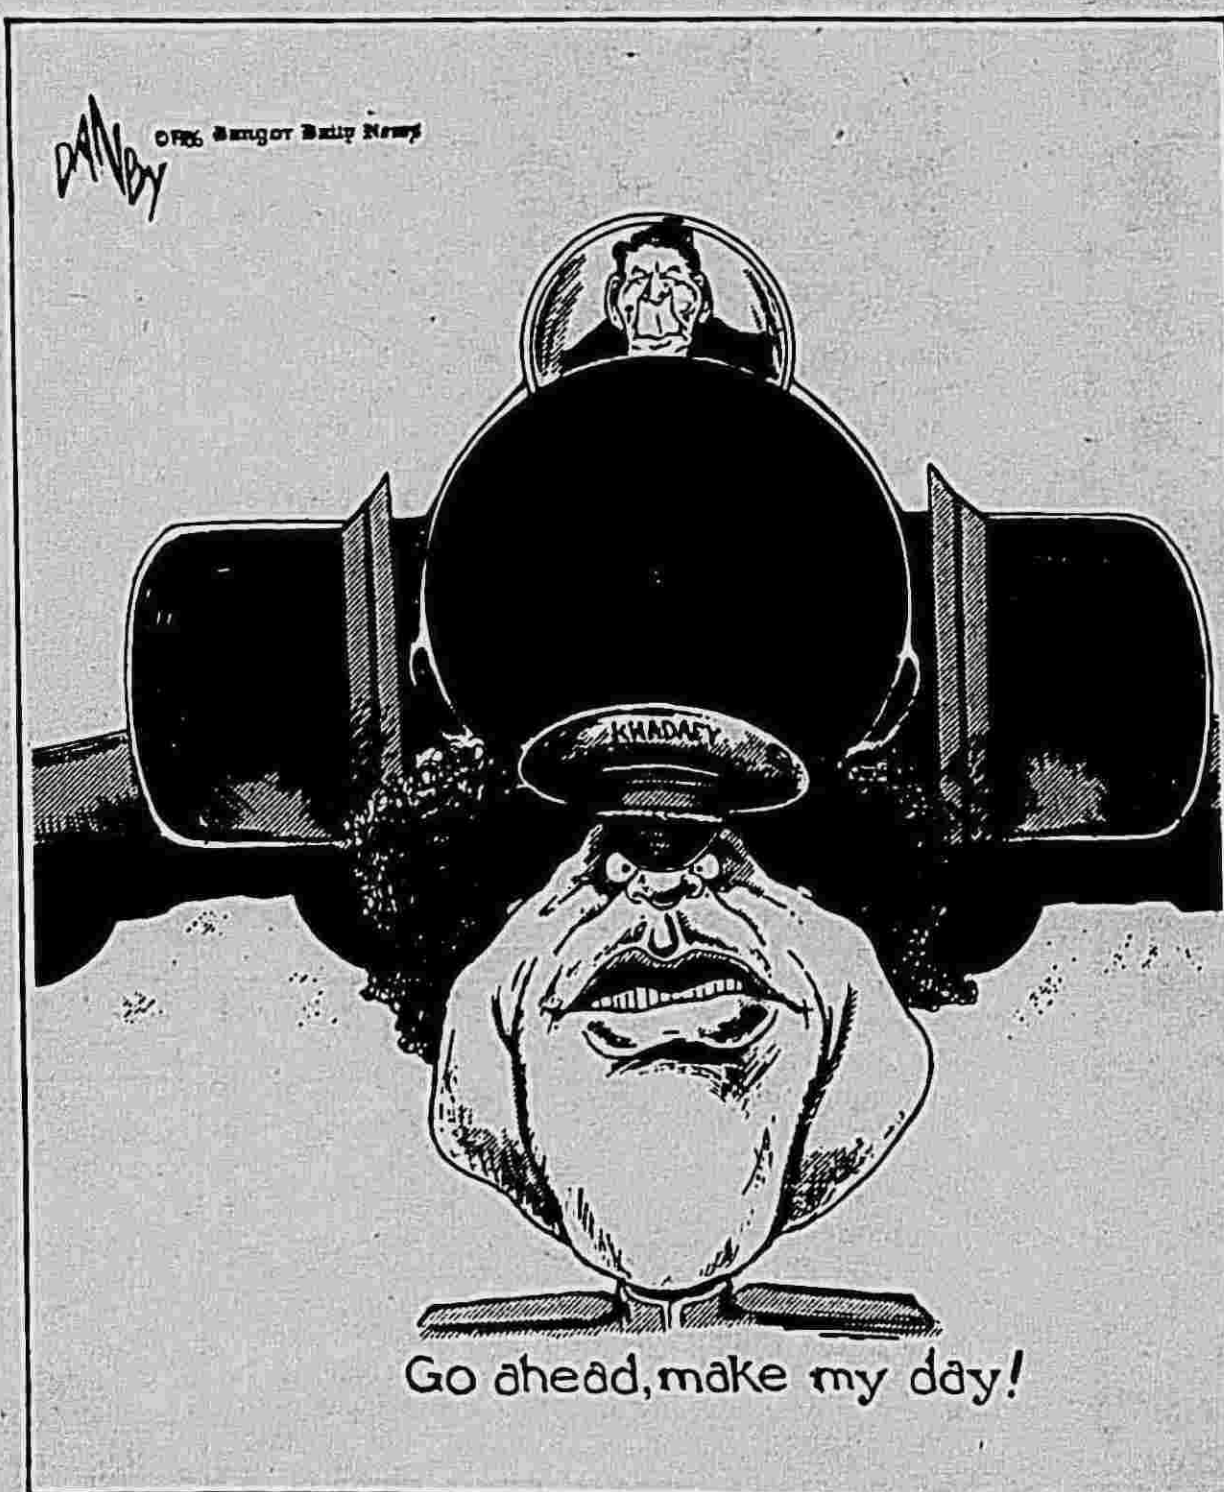

When Victory Hospital approached Lake Villa, they were advised that sewer and water would be a problem. The sewer plant was nearing capacity and an additional well and water tower were already in need. Along came phase 1 a, which started as an extended care facility. It is now a 120 bed nursing home at about $8 million dollars to construct. Also phase 1b, is introduced at a building cost of $11 million.

When discussion on contributing to help upgrade our system we were getting $50,000 for a new well and building (plus other contributions). However, we would have to add to the $50,000 because our present well and building are costing in excess of $125,000. To put an addition on our present sewer plant would increase present minimum water and sewer bills from $29.07 to $46.62 for operating and maintenance. To connect to Lake County, bills would go from $29.07 to $64.83 (since then the county figures have verbally been decreased). We realize our costs to operate our present system have increased and rates for sewer have not been raised since 1974. Don't increases like these propose more support from the developers wanting our facilities? Sixty acres of tax exempt property mean no real estate tax, no products are sold, so no sales tax would be collected. We were offered an annexation fee of $15,000.

If a $19 million development did not accept our village it is because in April of 1985 during our discussions they knew they could seek annexation to our neighboring village. No development should expect to bring a project into a village and not pay to help upgrade the systems they will need. We do expect to grow, and our residents will see some increases but we will not give our village away.

Joyce Frayer, Mayor
Village of Lake Villa

Arroz Con Pollo Recipe Easier Than It Looks

At first glance, the recipe for arroz con pollo looks difficult. It really isn't.

I learned to cook the chicken and rice dish, thanks to a friend of my wife. Angie is Cuban and could prepare it in her sleep.

I've enjoyed arroz con pollo at Angie's home many times.

A couple of tips:

Rinse the rice, Valencia, three times and soak it until ready to use.

Get the rice as well as the yellow food coloring, bijafior, and Spanish white cooking wine at a Spanish specialty store. But any short-grain rice, yellow food coloring or white wine can be used without sacrificing taste.

ARROZ CON POLLO

2 chickens, about 3 pound each, cut up salt and garlic powder to taste juice from 1 small lime
1/2 cup olive oil
1/2 large green pepper, chopped
1 medium onion, chopped
3 small bay leaves
1/4 teaspoon each dried oregano leaves and garlic salt
1/8 teaspoon ground cumin
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
1/2 cup white wine
5 cups cold water
3/4 teaspoon bijafior
4 cups short-grain rice, rinsed well and soaked

1 can (5 oz.) whole pimientos
1/2 cup beer
1 cup canned early peas, drained

Season chicken with salt and garlic powder, sprinkle on lime juice and set aside. In huge pot, heat oil on high, add green pepper, onion, bay leaves and oregano. Reduce heat to medium low, add garlic salt and cumin, stir in tomato sauce and wine

Pilot Light GREG MELIKOV

Raise heat to medium high, add chicken and cook ten minutes. Add water and bijafior, raise heat to high, cover and cook five minutes. Reduce heat to medium, cook covered 15 minutes, remove chicken and set aside.

Drain rice and stir into same pot, add a little salt if desired, cover, bring to boil, stirring. Reduce heat to medium, cook five to seven minutes covered, occasionally stirring. Stir in juice from pimientos, cook five minutes; return chicken to pot; stir in beer, cover and cook 20 minutes. Place chicken and rice on large platter, garnish with pimientos and peas. Serves 10-12.

Avoid Problems—Obey Leash Law

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

I write this article for everyone's interest. There are leash laws almost everywhere. Yet, many times I hear from persons who are having problems with their neighbor's dog.

Dogs continue to run loose because the owners don't care, or the owners may decide that they don't believe in leashing their pet. I wonder if they realize the danger to which they are subjecting their dog by not keeping him confined.

It's a normal sight to see dogs and cats that have been hit by cars, along the roadside. If a driver tries to avoid an animal on the road, it could result in an accident.

One loose dog meets another and the result can be a dog fight. Any vet will tell you how common it is to patch up animals that have been involved in a fight. It's not unusual for a smaller dog to be killed by a large dog. These are the facts. Is it fair to allow your dog to run right into trouble?

Often a pet owner can't understand why neighbors are cold towards him and his pet. It could be that your neighbors are tired of your dog being free to tear up their garbage, dig in their gardens, ruin their bushes, make messes in their yards and jump up on their guests and kids.

Your neighbors have a constant worry. If your dog should harm someone on their property, they can be sued. So your dog obviously isn't going to be welcome at their place.

So often the owner will say, "The dog is friendly and loves to play." Friends and neighbors could care less about this excuse. Your pet has caused problems for them. No one wants to be shots are up-to-date, how many times your dog has done this, and other factors.

Oh, I know what you're going to say next. You'll tell us that your dog doesn't bite. He may be a great pet at home with you, but when a dog runs loose, things can happen to make him bite. You are not with your dog when he runs loose, and the right to walk down the street without fear? At one time a dog attacked the person or a relative, or a dog scared them. Now, the fear is within the person. Is it fair to these people for your dog to be on the run to further frighten them?

Wouldn't it be better to obey the leash law? Your pet is home safe with you and out of trouble. Your friends and neighbors will think highly of you and there will be peace for everyone. The leash law is a good and much-needed law. As a pet owner, you are responsible to obey this law. Make life enjoyable for everyone, and everyone will thank you.

Pet-Wise

forced to love someone else's pet. No one wants problems caused by your pet.

Your friends and neighbors will deal with your pet just so long, then decide that your friendship just isn't worth the aggravation. Soon afterwards the animal shelter or police will be at your door with complaints. Do remember that it is the law to keep your dog fenced or leashed. You must have control of him at all times. After a couple complaints, the law could demand that you find another home for your pet, and you could be fined up to $500.

If your dog should be loose and for some reason bite someone, the law could come down hard on you. The extent of this would depend on whether the dog's rabies cannot know exactly what happens. Why not keep him at home to avoid the possibility of him biting someone. The reason for his biting someone will not matter to that person. You and your dog will still be at fault and you are responsible.

There are many people who have a great fear of dogs. All they have to do is see a dog and they will walk on the other side of the street to avoid it. Think about these poor souls who have to deal with a dog that is loose. Shouldn't these people have

Collecting Stamps Can Be Fun And Profitable

by GARY S. MEYERS

You can be like globetrotting King George V and Franklin Roosevelt. Become a philatelist, a stamp collector. You'll have a hobby that's not only fun and profitable, but lets you travel the world from your easy chair.

"Stamp collecting is the second most popular hobby in the U.S. after photography," said John Ross, a Chicago stamp dealer for more than 40 years.

Unlike most hobbies, starting a stamp collection requires very little equipment: a stamp album, tweezers to handle stamps and a magnifying glass. The total start-up cost can be as little as $20.

Until you get experience, stamp collecting should be treated primarily as a hobby, not an investment.

"It only takes a few weeks and some reading to gain expertise enough to start collecting stamps," said Russ Karli, a stamp dealer in Lebanon, Pa. "Be sure to take time and gain knowledge first, before investing heavily."

But beware, inexperienced amateurs rarely get a crack at the legitimate great stamps.

"Every dealer has a list of preferred customers, some of whom have been waiting years for a certain rare stamp. They will get first choice of the valuable stamps," said Chicago stamp dealer, Jon Subak.

The value of stamps is determined by supply and demand, condition and sometimes printing errors.

--SUPPLY AND DEMAND. Usually it is a limited supply rather than great demand, that makes a stamp valuable.

The world's most valuable stamp, the British Guiana Magenta, is the ultimate limited edition.

Originally issued by British Guiana in 1856, there was only one made (no one knows why). A British official used it to send a letter to England.

A schoolboy found the stamp while rustling through a garbage can. And, a few years later, about 1860, he sold it for the equivalent of $10. Gradually collectors began to realize how valuable this stamp really was. In 1960 the stamp was sold at auction for $1 million.

The 1931 Zeppelin stamp is a less exciting example of the same principle. Due to the Depression, only 60,000 were issued. One of these is now worth $2,000.

--CONDITION. Just like most collectibles, a stamp's value will vary with its condition.

A mint-condition stamp must fulfill three criteria. It must have: all of its gum on the back, all of its perforations intact, and be perfectly centered. Uncanceled stamps are generally more valuable.

--ERRORS. Printing mistakes have value, because they are rare.

"There are three kinds of errors--freaks, oddities and major errors," said Bob Dumaine, a Houston stamp dealer and error specialist. "Freaks are minor errors, like a stamp with only half a design, or oddities such as missing or crooked perforations."

"Major errors are stamps with missing or wrong colors or inverted designs. Major errors are the only errors with real value."

"The most valuable major error is the Inverted Jenny, the first U.S. Air Mail stamp, issued in 1918. It is now worth about $100,000," Dumaine said.

Experts advise that errors in general are a good investment; however, it depends on when you buy. Don't rush in, wait to see if more show up.

"If you wait you can usually get the stamps about five percent cheaper," said Dumaine.

--BLIND LUCK. If you are in the right place at the right time, you can make money on new anomalies.

In 1978, the U.S. Post Office issued two varieties of regular stamps. The rare variety only had 10 perforations instead of the regular 12 and had only been issued in Washington, D.C. before the mistake was caught. A $1 book of these is now worth upwards of $70.

--BUYING AND SELLING. There are three ways for collectors to buy and sell their stamps--through the mail, through a dealer or at an auction.

Selling through the mail brings the highest yield because there is no middleman. However, it is often hard to match buyers and sellers. Buyers and sellers find each other by advertising what they wish to buy and sell in popular stamp magazines.

Dealers usually pay about half the list price for a stamp, depending what they perceive is the demand for that stamp.

Auctions are where stamps often achieve their highest price, but auctioneer's commissions and costs bring down the seller's yield.

For more information, collectors rely on catalogues. The three most well-known catalog and album publishers are Scott Publishing Co. and Minkus Publications, Inc., based in New York, and H.E. Harris & Co., based in Portsmouth, N.H.

The "Scott Catalogue of World Stamps" and the "Scott Catalogue of U.S. Stamps" are both popular general catalogs.

Minkus prints both general and specialized catalogs, which include stamps not considered to be postal issues.

The "Harris Catalogue of U.S. Stamps" is less expensive and deals only with U.S. and Canadian stamps. This popular catalogue features pictures of the stamps listed.

(This is the first of two takes.)

Volunteer Achievement Leads To Permanent Job

A "behind-the-scenes" accomplishment and adjunct to the Lake County Museum's varied programs resulted in a success story for a volunteer/student intern.

As a result of a speaking engagement to the Millburn Historical Society, Janet Gallimore-Smith, Museum Curator of Collections, contacted Ann Revenaugh who was a student at Iowa State University. Ann applied to do a Museum internship in 1984 and worked with the Museum's textile collection. During her second year as intern, she redesigned the rolled textile storage area and designed a mounting technique for flat, fragile textiles. (This project was documented and presented for publication consideration to Curator Magazine, a quarterly publication of the American Museum of Natural History.)

After graduation in May, Ann will begin a full-time salaried position as Curator of Textiles at Iowa Living History Farms, Des Moines, Iowa. The Museum is proud to have contributed to the career pathing of a volunteer/intern and also to have benefited the institution with volunteer contributions and accomplishments.

Ann's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Revenaugh reside in Millburn and are members of the Lake County Museum Association.

Donald Strenger, President of the Lake County Forest Preserve District stated, "The District is very proud of the award-winning volunteer/intern program designed and implemented by staff as well as the outreach benefits of speaking engagements. We encourage interested volunteers and prospective interns to inquire about opportunities available at the Museum."

The Museum is located seven and one-half miles west of Mundelein on Rte. 176 in the Lakewood Forest Preserve. The Museum is open daily including weekends from 1-4:30 p.m. A small admission fee is charged except for Monday. School and group tours can be arranged by appointment by calling (312) 526-7878. A gift shop is available.

Zoos Satisfy Urges For Overseas Travel

The turned down interest in overseas travel during 1986 may be partially satisfied by a trip to the zoo. Be it Brookfield, Lincoln Park or Milwaukee, luckily, we are close to three of the country's finest. Zoos are wonderful worlds, inhabited by international residents that fly, walk or swim.

The Brookfield Zoo, at 31st and 1st Ave., has more than 2000 animals which annually consume 370 tons of vegetables, fruits, meat, fish, hay and prepared foods. A combination of over 1000 full time and part time employees, plus volunteers, make all the things happen that some 2 million annual visitors enjoy.

All may be viewed seven days a week, year 'round, however special events attract special audiences. Displays at the children's portion of the zoo, Dolphin World, Tropic World and elephant walks are special interest items to be incorporated into a visit.

Summer hours are 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Admission for adults is $2.25 and for children 6-11 is 75 cents...same for seniors...free on Tuesdays for all. Parking is $2 per car and wheelchairs, wagons and strollers may be rented. Special festivity days are scheduled monthly. Information may be obtained by calling (312) 485-0263.

Just as ours was a relaxing visit at Southern Komfort Resort, on Kentucky Lake, Benton, Ken., last week, travelers seek slow moving changes that offer favored activities not found at home. Wisconsin opens its game fishing season in May and fresh, pine scented air makes the outdoors most desirable. Pine Forest Lodge, in Mercer, Wis., is another of the quiet places that put things back into perspective after a long winter. It's the only resort on 400 acre Spider Lake, but 200 other lakes lie within 20 miles. They are part of the fishing famous Turtle River chain for musky, walleye, bass and crappie. Everything needed by the visitor is at Pine Forest Lodge, except personal gear. Cottages are spaced for privacy, amid towering trees and wildlife watch visitors with interest. Information is available from Merrill Redman, (715) 476-2241.

Next week, in Paris, Tenn., April 21-26, 12,000 people will consume 9000 pounds of catfish during what is called, "The World's Biggest Fish Fry." It's a spring festival the mountain folk used to celebrate as a mule market sale.

Mules have since disappeared, but fishing is big in Tennessee, so the name was changed to Fish Fry. Festivities will include rodeos, beauty contests, ball games and a big Saturday parade. For details, write Tennessee Tourism, Box 23170, Nashville, TN., 37202, or call 1-615-741-2158.

National Tourism Week will be celebrated May 19-25 this year. The theme is "Tourism Works For America." Every state has representative awareness activities. Both Iowa and Tennessee have adopted the "Homecoming For '86" slogan. One of Iowa's attractions is Tulip Time in Pella, with festivities during the May 8-10 weekend. For Tennessee, the big news is Dollywood. Named for Dolly Parton and run by her, this new theme park is at the edge of Great Smoky Mountains National Park. It opens May 3.

Take a one-day trip offered by McHenry County College. The April-May Community Education Schedule lists a variety to choose from.

On Sunday, April 20, you can tour Chinatown by luxury bus, then eat at a Chinese restaurant, tour a noodle factory and browse through the grocery and gift shops. You might want to bring a shopping list and stock up on Chinese specialty foods and spices.

A Chicago Highlights bus tour is scheduled for Saturday, May 17. The luxury bus will travel to the Monadnock Building, where a guide from the Chicago Architecture Foundation will lead you through the Loop, Gold Coast, Hyde Park, three historic districts and three university campuses. Participants will also tour the Glessner House and look at the exteriors of the Clarke House and the Frank Lloyd Wright masterpiece, the Robie House.

On Friday, May 23, the luxury bus will carry you to historic merry-go-rounds in this area. The tour leader, Pat Tanner, says this is probably the only place in the country where the full progression of old merry-go-rounds can be visited in one day.

The group will start with a guided tour through Santa's Village (no entrance fee) and view an 1880 horse-drawn bench merry-go-round and a portable aluminum one. Lunch is at the Barn of Barrington and includes a tour of an extensive collection of merry-go-round figures and animals. The last stop is Great America (no entrance fee), to see a wooden carousel and a fiberglass one.

For specific dates, times and fees, consult MCC's April-May Community Education Schedule or call the College at (312) 455-3700. Register in Rm. 140 at the college, Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. and 5:30-8:30 p.m.; or stop in on Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Need Records To Show Business Use Of Car

by GARY S. MEYERS

Income tax law changes over the past two years have had a major effect on business deductions for automobiles.

Theoretically, taxpayers are not required to keep written records. "However, since Congress has told the Internal Revenue Service to give little weight to oral evidence, in reality, written records will be essential if your tax return is challenged," said Dan McMillan, tax expert with Laventhol & Horwath, a national CPA firm.

"Taxpayers must substantiate business use of automobiles with adequate records of sufficient corroborating evidence to avoid losing valuable tax benefits," said Sherwin Gilbert, certified public accountant with the Chicago-based firm of Seidman & Seidman.

Tax experts say it is a good idea for employers who own business autos and employees who drive the cars to maintain documentary evidence, such as receipts and copies of paid bills.

These records could be kept in combination with account books, diaries, logs, trip sheets or expense reports, supporting the business usage.

Records should specify the date, who used the automobile, number of miles driven and purpose of the trip. The odometer reading at the beginning and end of the year should also be recorded.

Gilbert said the kind of substantiation needed depends on the circumstances.

Let's suppose you use a truck for both business and personal purposes. Your business use of the vehicle is to make deliveries to customers on an established route.

You may satisfy the record-keeping requirements by recording the total number of miles driven during the year, the route distance, and the date of each trip.

It also is possible to substantiate the business use of an automobile for each tax year by a sampling technique. To do this, you maintain records for portions of the year. You then demonstrate by other evidence that the periods for which you keep records are representative of the entire year's use.

However, this method may not be used for an automobile which an employer allows more than one employee to use.

An employee also must substantiate business use of an automobile provided by his employer through adequate records of sufficient corroborating evidence.

"The employee must give these records or a statement of business/personal use to the employer," Gilbert said. "Otherwise, the employer must treat the employee's use of the property as personal use and include its value in the employee's W-2 as compensation."

The employer who provides automobiles to employees must make sure the employee keeps the proper records. The employer does this by requiring the employee to submit

The standard rule for automobiles is the lease value. The lease value can be the cost of leasing a similar vehicle from an independent third party.

Alternatively, a published IRS table of annual lease values based on the automobile's fair market value may be used.

For example, a car valued at $12,000 has an annual lease value of $3,600. The standard mileage rate may be used if the value of the car does not exceed $12,800 and the car will be regularly used in the employer's business or actually driven by the employees at least 10,000 miles a year.

For 1985, the standard rate was 21 cents a mile for the first 15,000 miles and 11 cents for each mile over 15,000.

Taxpayers claiming deductions and credits for business use of passenger automobiles and other listed property, such as trucks, boats and airplanes, must submit the following information with their income tax return in response to specific questions:

—Date placed in service, and percentage of business use.

—Whether there is evidence to support the deduction, and whether the evidence is written.

—The total number of miles driven during the year, with a breakdown for business, commuting and personal mileage.

—Whether the vehicle was available for personal use in off-duty hours, and whether another vehicle was available for personal use.

If an employer furnishes an automobile to an employee, the employee must give the information to his employer so that he can answer these questions in his return.

either his records or a statement supporting his business/personal use.

"If the employee does not do this, the employer must include the entire value of the property's use in the employee's W-2," Gilbert said.

If part of the auto use is personal, the employer must include in the employee's W-2 the value of its use.

The IRS recently issued regulations for computing the amount of unsubstantiated business use of an auto that can be taxed to the employee.

Last Day For Loan Filing

Area businesses that have not yet filed for low-interest loans to install environmentally-safe coal burning equipment have until May 2 to apply, Sen. Adeline J. Geo-Karis (R-Ill.) has reported.

"I am encouraging firms that could save money by using low-cost Illinois coal to look into this loan program," Geo-Karis said. "They can cut interest costs for a new or improved coal burning system by qualifying for a five percent rate on 25 percent of the cost, up to $2.5 million."

The senator explained that the loan money is being provided by the Illinois Coal Utilization Program administered by the Illinois Dept. of Energy and Natural Resources (ENR).

Carmel Ready For ESCC League Competition

by STEVE PETERSON

Now comes the hard part. Carmel's baseball team racked up an impressive 7-2 non-conference record.

But April 19 begins the always tough East Suburban Catholic Conference play at home against St. Viator. And coach Joe Pudlo knows his team must improve its play if the Corsairs are to make some waves in league action.

"The conference has a lot of quality teams. We can't afford to play tentative. We have to play our best," Pudlo said.

The second-year coach saw his team win three games last week, but only two counted.

The Corsairs beat Warren 4-1 April 7 and Grant 12-3 April 10. A 15-10 win over Woodstock was called because of darkness after four innings and is not likely to be replayed, Pudlo said.

"I thought we ran ourselves out of a couple of innings and we did not play real well," Pudlo said of the win over Warren.

Sophomore Scott Stahoviak picked up the win, allowing the Blue Devils a run in the fourth.

Bob Langer was three-for-four with two Runs-Batted-In. Steve Bruns had two-for-three with two doubles and Mike Prefontaine was two-for-two with a double.

Langer continued his hot bat against Grant with two hits in three at bats and two RBIs. Bruns was two-for-three along with Jason Kelly. Dan Halverson was the winning pitcher, upping his record to 2-0.

Before playing St. Viator, the Corsairs travel to Antioch April 17.

A combination of clutch hitting and good pitching led Carmel in a week-long sweep of Zion-Benton, Grayslake and Waukegan East to start the season.

"I hoped we would get off to a good start but you never know about that first week," Pudlo said of the 4-0 start.

Offense reigned the first two games as Carmel racked opponents pitching for 29 runs. Carmel bombed Zion-Benton 13-2 in the season opener and then beat a rainstorm and Grayslake 16-7.

Carmel swept Waukegan East in a doubleheader 3-2 and 6-4 April 5.

"If you said we would score 29 runs in our first two games I don't know if I would believe you," Pudlo said after the win at Grayslake April 3.

The game was played in the rain for three innings, but the Corsairs did not seem to mind. They put the contest away with eight runs in the second and seven in the third.

Kelly was four-for-four for Carmel, including a double and two triples. Steve Bruns had two hits.

Stahoviak, a sophomore, was the winning pitcher.

Kelly came back to turn in a strong pitching performance against East.

Kelly saved both games of the doubleheader, pitching in the seventh.

Carmel had three runs on nine hits in the first game to East's two runs on five hits.

Langer delivered the offensive punch, going two-for-three including a game-winning home run in the seventh.

"East had brought in a new reliever and Bob greeted him with a home run," Pudlo said.

Halverson picked up the win in game one.

Prefontaine was the hitting hero in game two. His three-run home run broke open a 1-1 tie in the fourth. Prefontaine finished the game with four of his team's six runs-batted-in.

Warren Seeks Pitching, Faces Mundelein Next

If anyone out there knows of a baseball player capable of being Warren Twp. High School's second starting pitcher, coach Ron Shelton would appreciate a call.

"You're not going to win a lot of games without a real established second starting pitcher," Shelton said.

The Blue Devils face Mundelein in an away doubleheader April 19 in North Suburban Conference action.

Warren's lack of pitching showed as the Blue Devils were edged by Grayslake 9-8 April 4. Warren was then edged by Carmel 4-1 April 7.

WTHS was then bombed by Round Lake 14-2 April 9.

The loss dropped Warren to 1-4 overall.

Russ Nolan, Warren's No. 1 starter, then went the distance in a 9-4 win over North Chicago April 8.

"Russ pitched well the whole game," Shelton said of Nolan.

Hitting stars for the Devils included Chris Eustice's two-for-four with a double and two runs scored; Derrick Shelton's two-for-four with three runs scored and Jim Burke's two-for-three.

Against Round Lake, the Blue Devils scored first on a double by Kelly Pollak and an Eustace single.

Round Lake answered as the hosts tallied five times in the first.

Warren scored its second run in the second with Pollak's RBI single.

Trailing 7-2, the Blue Devils had an excellent chance to get close in the fourth. They loaded the bases with one out but could not score a run.

Round Lake then put the game away by scoring seven runs in their half of the inning to win by the 10-run rule.

Grayslake Prepares For Tough NWSC Schedule

by DAN G. O'SHEA

The Grayslake Rams started off their Northwest Suburban Conference baseball season last week by dropping their first two contests, to Lake Zurich and Round Lake.

The Rams came alive in the second half of the week, however, to beat two non-conference foes and bring their overall record to 3-4.

Conference games were scheduled earlier this week against Marian Central and Grant. Grayslake plays a non-conference doubleheader at Palatine on Saturday, April 19. The Rams return to conference play on Monday, April 21, hosting Wauconda.

Grayslake traveled to Lake Zurich for its first conference contest and was beaten 7-4. Junior Mike Langer had two hits and two RBIs for the Rams, while senior Kelly Bye also had two RBIs.

Next, the Rams lost a home game against Round Lake by the score of 8-3. Senior Tom Castino reached base three times and senior Bill Sangbusch hammered his first home run of the season. Bye and senior Jeff West each had an RBI.

The Rams routed Mundelein on April 10 in a non-conference game 12-1. The game was called after five innings because of the 10-run slaughter rule. The Rams had a six-run fifth inning, highlighted by a two-run homer by Langer. There were six hits in the inning, including doubles by Castino and Sangbusch.

Bye had three hits against the Mustangs, and Sangbusch, Langer, Russ Hendricks and Dan Kettwich each had two hits. Sangbusch slammed his second homer of the year in the third inning.

The Rams finished up the week with a 20-12 victory in an offensive battle that lasted six innings at home against Wheeling on April 12. Rain washed out the second game of the scheduled doubleheader.

Asked about the Rams' weak pitching of late, Grayslake coach Jim Haas said that not everyone has been playing up to full potential, but the season is young, and the pitching will be coming around.

Strong Staff

Carmel's pitching staff is a big reason why the Corsairs have enjoyed success this young season. Carmel is 7-2 heading into conference games this week. Present are: Scott Stahoviak, George Hickey, Jason Kelly and Dan Halverson. — Photo by Steve Peterson.

Marathon Needs Volunteers

The Lake County Marathon is in need of volunteers. The event will be held Sunday, April 27.

The Lake County Marathon has many opportunities available for volunteers of all ages prior to race day and on race day itself. All help will be greatly appreciated to ensure that this year's event is a success. Volunteers are needed to the street marshalls, clean-up crews, van drivers and numerous other roles.

The marathon has been held annually for six years. This is the third year for the marathon to benefit Illinois Special Olympics, Lake County in particular. Twelve agencies serving the handicapped in Lake County received cash donations totaling more than $11,000 from last year's marathon.

The race will begin at Zion and end at Ravinia Park. It will feature a marathon, half-marathon, marathon team relay, and a 10K race. More than 2,500 entrants are expected.

If interested in becoming a volunteer for this year's event, please contact the Lake County Marathon office: 636 Ridge Rd., Highland Park; phone (312) 831-9374.

To Learn Hunting Principles

Area residents will have an opportunity to learn basic principles of safe hunting at a Dept. of Conservation hunter safety course scheduled for May 3, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., at the Lake County Cooperative Extension Service, Rtes. 45 and 120, Grayslake. The workshop is cosponsored by the Lake County 4-H program. The course will be taught by Verne Merrell.

A 1976 state law requires that all hunters under age 16 successfully complete the hunter safety course before they can receive their first hunting license. Participants completing the hunter safety course receive a hunter certification verifying that they passed the safety instruction.

"This will be an excellent opportunity for young hunters who need the course in order to qualify for their first hunting license," Merrell said. "It also can be beneficial for beginning hunters older than 16, even though they do not require the course to be eligible for a license."

The eight-hour course includes instruction in wildlife management, firearms safety, hunter ethics, game identification, first aid, survival techniques and regulation.

To register or for more information about the course, contact the coordinating instructor at (312) 223-0687, or the Lake County 4-H office, (312) 223-8627.

Panthers On A Roll; Three Games In A Row

The Round Lake Panthers are on a roll as of late, winning their last three varsity baseball games in a row.

The Panthers, 3-2 overall at press time, who started the season off with a double-header loss to Waukegan West, have gotten some strong performances on the mound and have beaten three decent teams in a row.

Behind Billy Hart, the Panthers defeated Northwest Suburban Conference favorite Grayslake 8-2 on April 9. Hart pitched six innings, giving up nine hits and striking out seven.

After embarrassing Warren 14-2 April 10, senior Doug Sparks took the mound for Round Lake against Antioch on April 11. All Sparks did was strike out 14 batters and helped the Panthers beat the Sequoits 4-

3. Round Lake was scheduled to play conference foes Marengo and Marian Central on April 14 and 16 respectively.

Games coming up for the Panthers include Mundelein at home on April 17 and Richmond, also at home, on April 18. They will resume Northwest Suburban Conference play at Lake Zurich on April 21.

Big hitters against Grayslake included Hart, who was two for four with a double, Damon Horn (two for four), Sparks (two for three) and Brett Ligenza (two for three). Against Antioch, Hart hit the first home run of the year for the Panthers in the first inning and then Joe Lobinger hit a two-run homer in the sixth to win the game.

The Panthers are currently 1-0-1 in conference play. They have to continue a 7-7 tie game with Grant April 30.

CLC Hosts Two Non-League Foes

by JOHN PHELPS

The College of Lake County's women's softball team will be hosting playing a tripleheader April 17.

The Lancers will be hosting Vermillion College and the College of DuPage beginning at 12:30 p.m.

CLC split doubleheaders against Elgin March 31 and Joliet April 2.

In the first game against Elgin, offense was the name of the game for both teams. The Lancers came up short in the slugfest, 16-11.

"The umpire was making some bad calls behind the plate, leading to several walks for Elgin," said CLC coach Candy Brasile.

The Lancers were led in offense by several players. Karin Mangin was 4 for 5 with a double and a triple while Luane Staranowicz each collected three hits in five plate appearances.

In the second game against Elgin, things were a little brighter for the Lancers as they beat the Spartans 17-7.

JoAnn Hangebrauk pitched a complete game, allowing four hits, five walks and striking out nine ECC hitters. Hangebrauk and Kelly Halkyard led the way offensively with two hits, while Mangin was one for three with three runs-batted-in.

"Our offense is looking really strong. We just need to work a little more on defense and I think we'll ultimately have a great shot at the conference (Skyway) title," Brasile said.

Against Joliet, the Lancers had to come from behind in the first game before winning 9-8.

Mangin had three hits, including a double and triple. Hangebrauk picked up the win, giving her a 2-0 record on the year.

In game two, Joliet's Wolves pulled out a 7-6 victory.

Hangebrauk was three for five at the plate with a double and triple and two RBIs. Lisa Tylkowski had two hits.

With the doubleheader split, CLC was 2-4 through six games.

Hole-In-One

Eugene Davis of Grayslake sank a hole-in-one on the 10th hole at Renwood Country Club April 11.

Davis, using a seven-iron, made the hole-in-one on a 135-yard hole.

Playing with Davis at the Round Lake Beach country club was Mr. and Mrs. Wally Ames of Lake Villa.

Renwood Country Club has a par 72 course.

Sequoits 0-0, Having Finished 2 Out Of 4

Weather permitting, the Antioch diamondmen were scheduled to take on the Warren Blue Devils on April 15 and then host the Carmel Corsairs on April 17.

They will then travel to Niles North for a double header on Saturday, April 19.

At press time, Mother Nature had shown little inclination to let the baseball season get into full swing and Antioch's North Suburban Conference record is at 0-0 and overall record at 1-5.

Antioch tied it all-up, 4-4, after six innings, against Mundelein, a game that is scheduled to be resumed in May.

Second baseman Brian White gets the credit for keeping that game still on the docket when he doubled in the bottom of the sixth to tie the score.

The Sequoits then traveled to Wisconsin and lost to Salem Central, 6-2. They made it a two-game losing streak by narrowly bowing to the Round Lake Panthers, 4-3, after a two-run homer in the sixth.

Inexperienced Sequoit pitcher, Eric Riedy was in a position to win the Round Lake game until the Panthers exploded for that score.

Mother Nature was again the Sequoits biggest adversary when she opened the skys with a downpour after two innings against the Libertyville Wildcats, with the Wildcats ahead 8-1, on April 12.

The rest of that game is scheduled to be played as part of a doubler header against Libertyville in two weeks.

Mustangs Aiming To Beat Panthers

The Mundelein High School varsity baseball team will take on the Round Lake Panthers in a non-conference game on Thursday, April 17 at Round Lake.

The Mustangs played Libertyville in a conference game on April 15. At the end of their game against Lake Forest on April 12, the Mustangs were 1-0 in the North Suburban Conference.

Mundelein led the game 5-0. Winning pitcher was senior right-hander Dan Word. During the first inning, senior Jim Tipperreiter hit an RBI-single.

In the second inning, John Kazenas had a two-run double that contributed to the Mustangs victory.

The Lesson Tee By Gary Flowers

Old Oakland Golf Club
11611 E. 75th St.
Indpls., IN 46236

Q: Why do better players sometimes use a sand wedge from a position near the green instead of a pitching wedge?

A: The choice is always based on what lies between the ball and the cup. Consider that you may be in a fairly deep rough, or that the ball must travel up and over a trap or water, or that the pin may be set close to the fringe. In each case your sand wedge would be the best choice if used correctly. The greater loft combined with the roundness of the sole will float the ball much like an explosion shot from a bunker whereas the pitching wedge will bring the ball out too low and too fast. To execute this shot open your stance, choke down on the club, and quickly break the wrists as you take the club back. At impact allow your hands to roll under the ball causing the face to open slightly. Check yourself on this shot to be sure you have done it correctly by looking at the club face at completion. The face must be aiming directly up or toward the sky if you are to achieve this high soft shot.

Coroner Issues Warning

The Office of Lake County Coroner, in cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, is issuing a warning about the misuse of charcoal briquets.

"With the first signs of real springtime weather, I am reminded that it is also time for those avid campers to rush out to enjoy their favorite recreational activity. I am also reminded that we had to report deaths from carbon monoxide poisoning occurring as a result of people burning charcoal briquets in an enclosed area. The nights are still cold and charcoal has been used to keep warm inside a tent or camper," Coroner Barbara Richardson, said.

There are warning labels at the top of every bag of charcoal briquets and these labels identify the hazard of carbon monoxide poisoning. "But, what some of the public is not aware of is the fact that carbon monoxide is a tasteless, odorless, invisible gas," she said.

Symptoms of carbon monoxide (CO) poisoning are similar to the flu: headache, dizziness, nausea. When concentrations reach a high enough level, victims suffer confusion and finally loss of consciousness.

Consumers may not realize that burning charcoal produces large amounts of carbon monoxide and that it only takes a small amount of CO in the air to produce symptoms of CO poisoning and even death. Opening a window or using a fan will not assure the CO gas will be reduced to safe levels.

A final warning concerns the use of burning charcoal in the home's fireplace. That, too, can be hazardous because it is questionable whether a charcoal fire will create a chimney draft sufficient to assure that CO will be exhausted to the outside. "Remember, you can't see and can't smell carbon monoxide. It can be there without your knowing it has accumulated," Richardson said.

Law Publication Available

Sec. of State Jim Edgar has announced that the publication "Law Enforcement and the Disabled" has been made available to the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. and the Grayslake Police Dept.

In Illinois, more than 1.7 million people are disabled. However, law enforcement personnel are not now formally trained to deal with the special problems faced by those who have physical, mental or emotional disabilities.

"Law Enforcement and the Disabled" is a comprehensive training program for police department employees dealing with the relationship between law enforcement personnel and persons with disabilities. The curriculum is divided into four sections covering mental retardation and hearing, visual and mobility impairments.

"The goal of the new training program is to give all law enforcement personnel a working knowledge, understanding and awareness of each disability, and to establish guidelines on how to interact with persons who are disabled while on duty," Edgar said.

He said "the new training program is an effort to extend the principle of 'equal justice for all' to the 15 percent of Illinois citizens who are disabled."

"Edgar encourages all law enforcement personnel to take advantage of this program.

Sybil Was 'Smashing,' Review Of Votes Shows

by JOHN STEINKE
Political Columnist

Sybil Yastrow, presently assistant county superintendent under retiring County Supt. William Thompson, easily defeated Larry Tenpas for the Republican nomination for regional superintendent of schools in the March 18 primary. Yastrow received 16,674 votes to only 7,792 for Tenpas, a former alderman and driver education teacher in the Waukegan public schools.

Yastrow, who had the support of County Supt. William Thompson and the GOP organization, polled 68.2 percent of the vote to Tenpas' 31.8 percent. The Republican nominatin is tantamount to the election. No Democratic candidate filed for the office in the primary. Yastrow, a Deerfield resident, is the first woman ever elected Lake County Regional Supt. of Education. Presently, three other women hold county-wide offices: County Clerk Linda Hess, Coroner Barbara Richardson and Circuit Court Clerk Sally Deadrick Coffelt.

Yastrow won all 18 townships. She captured nine townships with over 70 percent of the vote, primarily in the southern end of the county. Yastrow carried seven other townships with better than 60 percent of the ballots. The only two townships where Yastrow recorded less than 60 percent of the total were Waukegan and Zion.

Here is the rank/order and percentage by which Yastrow won Lake County's 18 townships:

Deerfield, 77.7; Shields, 77.3, West Deerfield, 75.3; Vernon, 73.3; Wauconda, 71.8; Ela, 71.7; Cuba, 71.4; Avon, 70.1; Grant, 70.0; Newport, 69.9; Fremont, 69.5; Antioch, 68.7;

7 Of 10 Like Seat Belt Law

Nearly seven out of 10 people favor retaining the state's mandatory seat belt law, according to an informal poll taken by State Rep. Dick Klemm (R-63rd). Klemm said the results mirror those of a recent survey performed by the Illinois Dept. of Transportation.

The informal poll was answered by 842 persons attending the Crystal Lake Expo, which was held at McHenry Community College. Klemm asked visitors to respond to the question, "Should the state repeal the mandatory seat belt law?" Nearly 70 percent—or 589 people—said the law should remain on the books.

"From talking with the public on this issue, it's interesting to note that those who favor repealing the law strongly support wearing seat belts," Klemm said. "They just don't want the state telling them they have to buckle up."

IDOT reported a 23.3 percent drop in auto fatalities this February, compared to the five-year average. The department attributes the improved safety record to increased seat belt usage.

"The statistics speak for themselves," said Klemm, who voted against repealing the law last year. "Most people agree that seat belts save lives."

Dunn resides in Highland

Park with his wife, Joan, and their two children, Lisa and Jonathan. A graduate of De Paul University Law School, Dunn has been in practice for over 20 years, presently with offices in the City of Highwood.

He is a past city attorney for the Village of Wauconda, and he is presently corporation counsel for the Village of Highwood and village prosecutor for the Village of Bannockburn, as well as a current member of the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals.

Foreman Graduates

Lake County State's Attorney Fred Foreman recently graduated from the F.B.I. Academy's National Law Institute held in Quantico, Va. Foreman represented Illinois at the Institute and was one of fifty law enforcement legal advisors who attended from each state in the Union. Foreman was recommended for attendance by the F.B.I. agent in charge of the Chicago office for the Northern Dist. of Illinois. The conference was held from Sunday, March 23 until Friday, March 28.

The instructors at the conference were all F.B.I. Special Agents assigned to the legal staff of the F.B.I. Academy. Intensive instruction was offered in criminal procedure, labor relations, legal problems of police administrators, and the First Amendment. Other issues such as hostage negotiations and advising police agencies concerning terrorist activities were also discussed. The attendees also had the opportunity to listen to arguments before the United States Supreme Court.

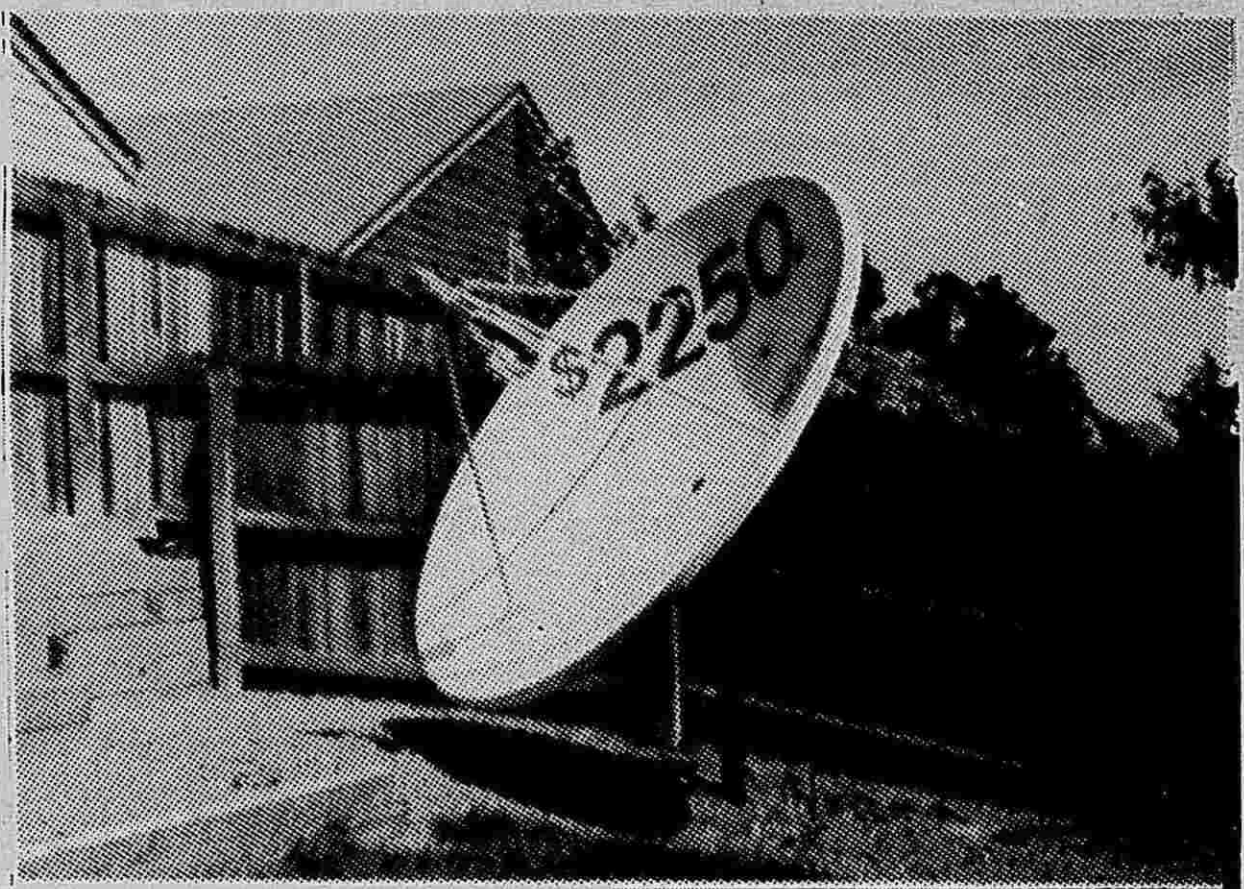

"I was honored to be selected to represent Illinois in attendance at this training seminar. The National Law Institute is only offered one time per year. The instruction at the Institute will greatly assist myself and the State's Attorney's Office in advising clients concerning insurance and liability issues, First Amendment issues, and hostage terrorist negotiations should the occasion arise in Lake County.

The purpose of the National Law Institute is to establish a network of legal advisors who may interact and assist one another on a nationwide basis. All expenses, including travel to the Institute, were provided by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. "The recent contacts that I have made in other parts of the country will be very cost effective with regard to arranging for extraditions of defendants who flee the state and are later arrested in other parts of the country. By contacting the legal advisors in these areas they can often times persuade defendants to waive extradition and return to Illinois, thereby saving the expenses of having to formally extradite individuals."

BUYING A HOME SATELLITE DISH IS COSTLIER THAN YOU THINK.

Before you spend your hard earned money on a satellite receive dish you should learn the facts.

This year popular premium services like HBO and Cinemax will begin scrambling their signals with highly sophisticated electronic encryption devices.

And this new technique won't be limited to just premium services. Many basic cable channels like ESPN, MTV and CNN have announced their intentions to scramble signals.

What does this mean for satellite dish owners?

In addition to paying several thousand dollars for the purchase and installation of a receive dish, it will be necessary to spend hundreds of dollars on descrambling equipment plus pay monthly service fees for each channel received.

Make your decision based on the facts.

Ardeen Gets Quick Action On Right-Turn Lane

-2761

There is good news and bad news to report on the situation of "right turns" on Grass Lake Road from E. 59. First, the good news, because of your letters and phone calls to the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT), the department will make this intersection an official right turn lane. Now for the bad news: this will not be done until the middle of May. Do

The middle of May is four weeks away. The weather is getting nice and if you haven't noticed, traffic is becoming heavy on the weekend. The address, again, is Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Highways, District 1, 1000 Plaza Drive, Schaumburg, Illinois 60196. Ralph Wehner is the district engineer.

By the way a copy of the reply was sent to the state police-district 2. For those of you who make a right hand

On March 26 the Grass Lake Junior High presented the light-hearted play, "Finders Creepers," under the direction of Mrs. Carolyn Adams. The following students worked very hard to make March 26 an enjoyable evening for all those who attended: Carl Campbell (Hercules), Brian Fehrenbacher (Wibur), Charles Haling (Claude), Tracy Podock (Daphne), Teresa Clifford (Celeste), Rachael Arnold (Frankie), Heather Flood (Granny), Michele Skrypt (Mrs. Nelson), Mike Campbell (Mr. Nelson), Jeff Henning (Henry), Scott Soltis (Mr. Schuster), Marina Stafford (Madeline), Chris Lehner (Mr. Quigley), Ken Mattson (Dr. Brown), and Carrie DeFalco (Nina).

Congratulations to the Grass Lake Junior High third quarter honor roll students. Every semester the list gets longer. You all should be proud of a job well done!

Sixth Grade: Sarah Adams, Rachael Arnold, Mark Cole, Matt Fleshman, Dawn Gardin, Heidi Grob, Amy Hansen and John Hines.

Seventh Grade: Shelley Brausam, Tiffany Christopoulos, Ericka Diehl, Deanna Olenick and Marina Stafford.

Eighth Grade: Christina Aker, Mike Campbell, Rich Cheterbok, Dave Clausen, John Cole, Cathy Cramer, Carrie DeFalco, Brian Fehrenbacher, Jenny Harris, Karl Johannesen, Tami Johnson, Ken Mattson, Michele Skrypt and Chris Varno.

Congratulations to Corry Hansen who finally had her cast removed on April 10-just in time for Spring!

A belated birthday wish to Matt Charts who celebrated his day on April 4 and turned four years old. Duncan Bardecki celebrated his day on April 10. Duncan is in the fifth grade at Grass Lake School. Pat Santiemmo celebrated her day on April 15. Happy birthday to you all!

So many of the Grass Lake residents made their way down to Florida over the Easter Vacation I'm surprised they didn't run into each other in the sunny state. John, JoAnn, Jeff and Matt Fleshman spent their week at Disney World with a side trip to visit John's brother in CoCo Beach. They really enjoyed the Indian River and Cape Canaveral.

Dorothy and Jerry Hart and Jennifer and Todd had a great time in Maderia Beach visiting friends and relatives. Dorothy said the trip back was bumper to bumper until they got into Georgia. A mass exodus from the state of Florida.

The Christopolus family also made their way south and Mike, Lorie, Tiffany and Tara all had a great time. Ray and Marie Brausam, Kelly and Jenny also enjoyed the sunny state of Florida. Don, Judy and Mark Fechtner are also back.

There will be a special PTO meeting scheduled for April 23 at 7 p.m. at Grass Lake School. Mark your calendar.

The Grass Lake PTO will be sponsoring a "fun fair" in May and baked goods and your help at this function will be greatly appreciated. Judy Fechtner and Julie Goth are the chairpeople this year and are planning an exciting affair. Mark your calendar for Saturday, May 3, from 1 till 4 p.m. at the Grass Lake School. A special added treat this year will be the jumping jupiter, a favorite for one and all. There will be a cake walk, games of chance and, of course, everyone's favorite-the gold fish bowl. Bring your children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and anyone else you can think of. They will have a great time!

Remember to call with your news.

Grass Lake News

we need more letters and phone calls? According to IDOT, until a few weeks ago, they were not aware of a problem in our area. Until that lane is officially changed, anyone who makes a right hand turn on the shoulder is in violation of the law.

Over the weekend, I made a proper turn. First I looked all around to make sure I wouldn't get and then I received dirty looks from those who thought I was a "nut" or didn't know where I was going at the corner. Sorry folks, I did receive a warning ticket and if I make another illegal right turn, I will get a $50 fine. I'm not sure if my letter from IDOT will hold up in court. The way my luck has been going, it probably won't.

turn off the shoulder of Grass Lake Rd. onto Rte. 59, you are also in violation. However, Grass Lake Rd. is a county road, and the state has no jurisdiction to make any changes, I'm told.

Pack 80 is busy selling tickets for their great spaghetti dinner which will be held on April 20 from 12 til 5 p.m. Besides all you can eat spaghetti, there will be delicious sausage and homemade deserts. Carryouts will also be available. The Grass Lake School gym will be the location. And the price of the dinner will be: $2.75 for adults; $2.25 senior citizens; and children five and under will be free. You can also buy tickets at the door, so if a scout hasn't been to your house, no need to worry.

Attorneys Uncover 'Crises'

Patrick A. Salvi and Kerry A. Forman, personal injury attorneys in Waukegan, represent victims of medical negligence, negligent automobile drivers and defective products.

According to the Waukegan attorneys, there is a so-called "insurance crisis" in Illinois. There have been numerous articles blaming insurance premium increases on large awards made in personal injury lawsuits. Because the attorneys are aware that the insurance industry has launched a high-priced lobbying effort to pass laws to limit recoveries for injured victims, they feel compelled to set the record straight.

Salvi said the insurance firm has heard from various business people about the fact that their business liability insurance rates have gone up dramatically. "We were curious as to why there was such a large increase in premiums when we had not seen a significant increase in claims or awards against the vast majority of business persons," declared Salvi. "Accordingly, we did some research."

He continued: "It turns out that insurers cannot prove that rate hikes and policy cancellations are due to high awards. The reason there is a 'crisis' is not jury awards, but an eight-year long insurance company price war. That price war, which did not end until 1984 left many insurers with depleted reserves out of which to pay claims and, worse from their view, too little money for investments. In the late 1970's and early 1980's the insurers cut their prices as they competed for business and for investment capital. Suddenly, they now fear they had cut rates too much to cover claims. What we now see is the insurance industry making up for lost ground at our expense. For example, the March 10, 1986, 'Business Week' editorial in demonstrating that the insurance company's complaints were unproven, said a survey of 270 day care centers done for the National Assn. for the Education of Young Children showed 90 percent of all day care centers had never experienced a claim on their liability policy. The highest claim among these centers was $15,000. Despite these hard facts, the insurance carriers demanded substantial increases in premiums.

"The legislation that should be supported is the legislation proposed by the Illinois Trial Lawyers Assn. This organization is seeking the passage of insurance reform laws that would require the Dept. of Insurance to approve insurance rates, require insurance companies to justify abnormal rate increases, provide adequate staffing and funding of the Dept. of Insurance to regulate the insurance industry, require insurance companies to give advance notice to the Dept. of Insurance of their intention not to renew certain lines of insurance and require insurance companies to show justification for drastic rate increases for certain classes of insurers when there has been little or no claim experience. These proposals make a great deal more sense than preventing a severely injured person from receiving just and adequate compensation."

"No one believes that claims that have no merit should be filed," Salvi stated, and went on to say that no person should be sued unless they have been negligent or made a defective product. "But, insurance companies do not primarily concern themselves with doing whatever is necessary to prevent baseless claims, that limit the recovery of persons who are brain-damaged, paralyzed, maimed and otherwise injured by drunk and negligent drivers, negligent doctors and careless product manufacturers."

Salvi said they daily hear horror stories of victims, and want to respectfully warn the public. For most persons, an injury caused through the fault of another is someone else's problem. The immediate concern of the average person is his car insurance or business insurance rates. "Do not be misled by an industry that is one of the most sophisticated in terms of maximizing profits," Salvi warned.

He concluded: "Do you seriously believe insurance companies have your best interest at heart? If the insurance company's legislation passes, I am afraid we will all be very sorry."

Bank Names Easter Winners

The Bank of Waukegan held a special contest to help celebrate the second anniversary of its Antioch Facility on Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd.

Since the anniversary coincided with Easter weekend, the bank created "Beegan the Bunny," a distant cousin of their popular mascot, Kegan the Unicorn, to promote the event.

A caricature of Beegan was placed next to a large jar of jellybeans and Beegan held a 16-line poem asking customers to guess the number of jellybeans in the jar.

Jars were located at each of the Bank's three locations and contained the following number of jellybeans: main office-4821; Westside facility-4848; Antioch facility-2690.

Each banking location had its own winner. The winning guess at the bank's main office was submitted by Susan Clare, of Waukegan. Her guess was 4802, missing the actual count by just 19.

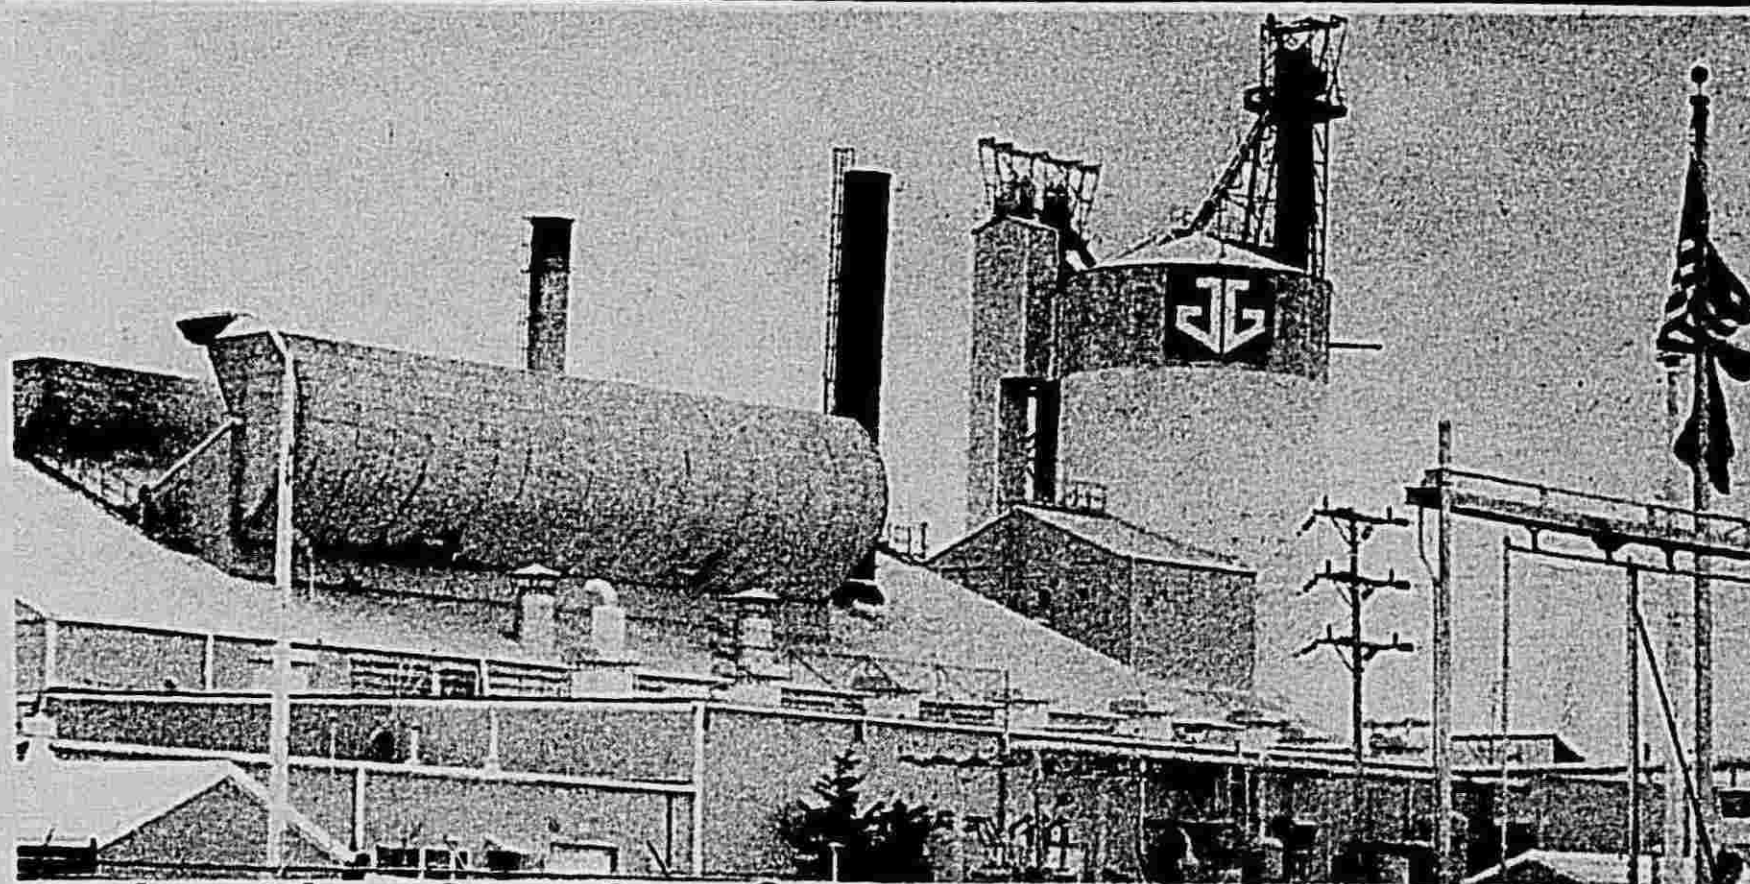

Rafael Lozano, Jr., of North Chicago, was the Westside facility winner, with a guess of 4930, just 82 from the exact count. The Antioch facility winner was Heather Wolfinger, of Antioch, who guessed 2631, 59 from the correct count.

Each winner received a $100 savings bond from the Bank of Waukegan.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Cheer up. Despite your darkest suspicions, things are not as murky as you think. Open your mind. Let some light in. You'll soon see how quickly the shadows melt away.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) An associate causes time-wasting problems. Rely on your well-known capacity for patience to help you see the situation through. Resist acting on impulse.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) You face unwanted but undoubtedly necessary changes. If you must grit your teeth, at least try to form a smile while doing so. Grumbling only makes things worse.

Cancer (June 21-July 20) A confusing period but with some amusing moments. Try to work things through without getting all worked up. Eventual success depends on you doing a thorough job.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 22) A-mazing but true! To escape from an emotional maze, just move forward. Don't look back. After a few false turns, you soon find the right way out.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sept. 22) Kith and kin provide the central support core you need at this time. Open up to them. Avoid passing judgment on those whose motives you can't really understand.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Slow down. You may be rushing right past the signs you've been looking for. An easier pace will allow someone special to catch up to you.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Don't get carried away by big promises. They're a lot like hot air balloons; they soar high but when the gas tank's empty, they collapse all over you.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Ambitious efforts soon pay off. But exercise patience. Although you've waited a long time for recognition, take things one step at a time at first.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Romantic situations seem somewhat strained. Your partner may be assessing the relationship. Don't press. Be patient and be there.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Before you get into a real fix, fix up that relationship you uncharacteristically took for granted. Your partner needs reassurance. Give it liberally.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Exercise every bit of that Piscean penchant for persuasion to get stubborn minds changed. Success is not a fluke; it's a net result of dedicated action.

Business Spotlight

Best Food
To Be Found at 'Shangri-la'

Bill and Margaret Gniadek will welcome you at the Lake Shangri-la Restaurant, just across the state line, in Bristol.

The restaurant, one of the best in Polish, German and American dining, was established in February and is family-owned and operated.

Bill whips up fish and game entries and Margaret does the rest. Soups are short on salt but long on flavor. Imported mushrooms and a dollop of sour cream complement the savory Russian vegetable soup. The delicate flavor of the homemade chicken noodle and liver dumpling soups is exquisite—even the noodles are homemade.

Entries start at about $4, and are served with soup and salad. Boiled pork shank, corned beef and cabbage, cabbage rolls—you just can't go wrong. A speciality is the roast rabbit with special gravy and herb stuffing. If your appetite swings towards roast duck, goulash, spaghetti, roast beef, or the many assortments of pierogi, you will be delighted.

Daily specials are featured. The portions are very generous (you'll probably ask for a doggie bag). Desserts are also homemade and absolutely luscious. If you enjoy strudels and assorted kolachke with a good cup of coffee, you'll be in heaven!

The Lake Shangri-la Restaurant, located on Hwy. V, one block south of 116 St., is open seven days a week. Hours are: weekdays, 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. A champagne breakfast is featured on Sundays.

Stop in for an Epicurian delight. Phone (414) 862-2979.

Twenty-five major antique dealers from northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin will display quality antiques. There will be a wide variety of items including furniture, jewelry, linens, primitives, china, glassware, hooked rugs, and World War I items. Serious collectors and newcomers alike are sure to find treasures to their liking.

The proceeds from this sale will be used to support the fledgling Historical Society Museum, located at the corner of Main and Depot Sts. in Antioch. This society is strictly a non-profit organization: all work is volunteer and all acquisitions are donated.

The museum is housed in the restored Antioch Grade School building built in 1892. This was not the first school structure. Except for a few surviving photographs attesting to its existence, very little is known about the original one-story frame school building.

The existing museum is a two-story yellow brick structure. It retains its original woodwork, wainscoting, hand-carved trim, and double stairway. Construction began in 1891. To date, the only workman of record was Hugh G. Dardis of Racine County, Wis. The museum hopes to obtain some of his tools for display.

As far as can be determined, the initial enrollment of the school was 12 students. Until 1915, the second floor was used as a two-year high school. Students who wished to continue their high school education had to attend school in Waukegan.

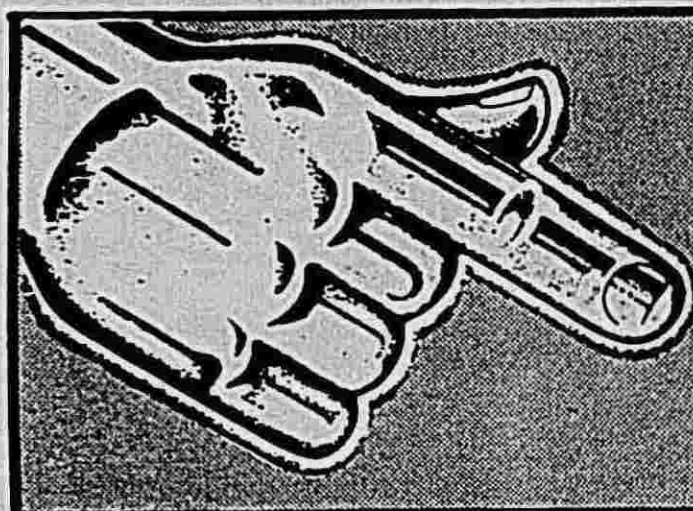

Fortunately, the original brass school bell was stored by school district 34 and was turned over to the society. An exact replica of the old bell tower was donated to the society. After two attempts, the bell has been restored to its original and rightful place on the roof.

The hours for the antique show will be: Saturday, April 19 from 10 a.m. till 9 p.m. and Sunday, April 20 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is $2.50 per person. Children under 12 will be admitted at no charge when accompanied by a parent.
